

A close-up photograph of a stained glass window. The central focus is a golden, stylized face with dark, curved lines for eyes and a mouth, looking downwards. The face is set against a dark background. Surrounding the face are various colored glass pieces in shades of red, blue, green, and yellow, arranged in a pattern that suggests a larger design. The lighting is dramatic, highlighting the textures and colors of the glass.

Holy Communion
The Seventh Sunday after Trinity