

At the Rectory, 1 Church Close, West Bergholt, CO6 3JZ

A group of people are seated around a white table, engaged in reading. In the foreground, two large, dark brown ceramic mugs are prominently displayed. To the right of the mugs, a thick book with a colorful cover lies flat. In the background, a person is holding an open spiral-bound book titled 'The Bible Course'. The book's cover is black with white and yellow text. Another person next to them is also holding a book. The setting appears to be a casual meeting or study session.

To ensure we have enough handbooks for every participant, please let Heather know if you are planning on attending.
