

SAINT RUMWOLD LECTURES 2025

Come and enjoy a summer evening, with a stimulating talk and discussion by candlelight, in the picturesque setting of St Rumwold's Church, Bonnington on the edge of the Romney Marsh near the Royal Military Canal. SatNav users put in postcode TN25 7BW and keep on down the lane until you see the church.

All lectures start at 7:00 pm.

FRIDAY 4TH JULY

Revd. Professor Charlotte Sleigh ((Professor in the History of Science at University College London and University of Kent and Honorary teaching fellow at St Augustine's, College)

Science and Religion: Getting our Stories Straight

Revd Professor Charlotte Sleigh will talk about an experiment in combining science and Christian spirituality and how it helped students celebrate both.

FRIDAY 11TH JULY

Very Revd. David Monteith (Dean of Canterbury)

Richard III

Dean David will tell the story from the discovery of Richard's remains in a car park to their burial in a tomb in Leicester Cathedral.

FRIDAY 18TH JULY

David Felton (Canterbury Cathedral Guide)

Pilgrimage: homo viator, cave canem! On the Via Francigena to Rome

David will talk about his recent experiences on the famous footpath from Canterbury to Rome.

Supper will be available in the church after the lectures for all who wish to stay.

Admission free, donations towards Saint Rumwold's welcomed.
