

SUMMER SERVICES A Gentle Pause

As we move into August, we're making a few small adjustments to our service pattern. Like many churches, we find that this quieter season offers a natural opportunity to rest, reflect, and make space for renewal.

And so, some of our regular services will be paused during August – not out of neglect, but out of care. Care for those who serve week by week, and care for the whole community as we allow ourselves a little breathing space in the warmth of summer (or even the occasional rainstorm!).

Worship will continue each Sunday, do check the service rota carefully. The heart and essence of our worshipping life together remains. But you may notice a slightly simpler rhythm for a few weeks. Normal patterns will resume in early September.

Thank you for your understanding, your prayers, and your faithfulness. Let's use this season gently – to rest in God's presence and return refreshed.
