

You are warmly invited to join a free series of meetings to explore central Christian beliefs held on five Wednesday evenings starting on 8th October 2025.

This year is a special anniversary of Nicene Creed, written to summarise what Christians believe, and said countless times since it was composed exactly 1700 years ago. Richard Scott and Peter Watsham will be leading a series of group discussions exploring the Creed, discovering why it isn't just a collection of words but a series of statements written to inspire, reassure and encourage us. Whatever your knowledge of the Christian faith this is for you.

When and Where?

7.00pm to 8.30pm on Wednesdays 8th, 15th 22nd 29th of October and 5th November in Lympstone Church.

What do I need to bring?

Nothing. It's free and everything required will be provided including a hot drink and cake.

What happens at the evenings?

Brief introductory talks, prompts for group discussion, music, bible readings and short prayers.

Do I need to attend all the sessions?

No. Inevitably some people will not be able to make every evening due to other commitments. Please attend as many of the five evenings as you can, but please don't feel by coming to the first of the evenings that you need to attend the others – but we hope you will want to!

Is it limited to attendees of Lympstone Church?

No. It is open to everyone, whether you attend church or not, and people from other churches are welcome including those worshiping elsewhere in the Mission Community. However, we hope many members of Lympstone Church's Family will take the opportunity to come to encourage one another by exploring our faith together.

If you plan to come or have any questions please contact Richard Scott (rosandrichard@btinternet.com) or Peter Watsham (peter@watsham.org)

We Believe

8th October – What is the Nicene Creed?(led by Richard Scott)

15th October – God the Father (led by Peter Watsham)

22nd October – God the Son (led by Richard Scott)

29th October – God the Holy Spirit (led by Peter Watsham)

5th November – The Church, Baptism, Resurrection and Eternal Life (led by Richard Scott)

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is,
seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
was incarnate from the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge
the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is worshipped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come.
Amen.