BOOK GROUP

The Book Group is reading The Islandman by Tomàs O'Crohan, to discuss at the next meeting on Thursday 29 January.

The author's sole purpose in writing this book was, he wrote, "to set down the character of the people about me so that some record of us might live after us, for the like of us will never be seen again." This is an absorbing narrative of a now-vanished way of life, written by one who had known no other.'

All welcome – no invitation needed! For more information, please email bookgroup@trumpington.church

ECO-CHURCH

Eco-Church at work at the Sunday Service on 21 December, where Bird boxes were made for the Churchyard. 15 Bird boxes were made with their individual designs, so they can be identified when they are placed around the churchyard over the coming weeks, ready for Spring. There will also be six or more bird feeders and some bird baths, creating a very inviting churchyard not only for birds but also for other wildlife.

Any suggestions or a desire to be involved, then contact the Churchyard Steward at: stephen@reynoldsfamily.co.uk

ACCESSIBILITY FOR ALL

Accessibility means making sure everyone can take part, use, and feel welcome, regardless of their abilities, needs, or circumstances. At its heart, accessibility is about removing barriers so people are not excluded.

It is not about giving special treatment, but about fair access.

Our church is serious about accessibility and wants to hear from you, whether just a comment on what is being done or not. Or whether you want to become involved and help develop accessibility so that all can enjoy their time in our church.
