PRAYER FOR THIS SUNDAY

Eternal Lord,
our beginning and our end:
bring us with the whole creation to your glory, hidden through past ages and made known in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

REFLECTIONS.....MARK BICK

John 1 v29 to 42 – the baptism of Jesus and the calling of the first disciples.

What was it about Jesus that caused these two young working men to upend their lives and follow Him? They had already responded to the call to repentance of John the Baptist. John describes Jesus, filled with the Holy Spirit, as God's Lamb, the Messiah. They respond by following Jesus.

This song from the Iona community immediately came into my mind; expressing the challenge, excitement, depth and breadth of the call of Jesus:

Will you come and follow me if I but call your name?
Will you go where you don't know and never be the same?

Will you let my love be shown, Will you let my name be known,

Will you let my life be grown In you and you in me?

Will you leave yourself behind if I but call your name?

Will you care for cruel and kind and never be the same?

Will you risk the hostile stare, should your life attract or scare?

Will you let me answer prayer In you and you in me?

Sunday January 18th

2nd Sunday of Epiphany

CONTINUED....

Will you let the blinded see if I but call your name?
Will you set the prisoners free and never be the same?
Will you kiss the leper clean, and do such as this unseen,
And admit to what I mean
In you and you in me?

Will you love the 'you' you hide if I but call your name?
Will you quell the fear inside and never be the same?
Will you use the faith you've found to reshape the world around,
Through my sight and touch and sound
In you and you in me?

Lord, your summons echoes true when you but call my name.

Let me turn and follow you and never be the same.
In your company I'll go where your love and footsteps show.

Thus I'll move and live and grow
In you and you in me.
