The Gospel According to Others

...the supporting characters' point of view

- King Herod has his own way to deal with a new born King.
- Joseph and his family are to become refugees.
- Nicodemus. A priest realises he knows nothing about God.
- Lazarus. Does he now believe in resurrection?
- Peter. What was it like to walk on water?
- Joseph of Arimathea. Did he take the boy Jesus on a foreign sea voyage? If he did, what did that friendship look like? What will he do with the empty tomb on his estate?

This is actor Andrew Cullum's personal view of some peripheral characters in a familiar story. It is not the Gospel according to any of the better known writers, but the Gospel... *According to Others.

Andrew Cullum trained at Webber Douglas in the 1980s. He has played many theatre seasons in roles ranging from Richard III to Pantomime Dame.

Television work includes The Crown, EastEnders, Emmerdale and Brum. He has performed this play at Coventry Cathedral.

Andrew has a prolific career as a narrator of audiobooks, with over sixty available through Audible.

He wrote and produced a play, The Panto Girls which played in the UK and Canada and his first novel, Lights Burning Blue, is a page-turning thriller with a theatrical setting.
