The Manchester and Salford Whit Walk - is a historic tradition, taking place tomorrow, Monday, 25th May. There will be hundreds of people marching in church groups with bands and banners. There is a happy atmosphere featuring brass bands, church banners, and families.

It will start at 10:00 AM at Cathedral Gardens (near Manchester Cathedral) then process through the city centre to St Peter's Square for an Act of Worship. It is a 200-year-old tradition where Christians from various denominations celebrate Whitsun/Pentecost together. We invite you to come and walk with us.

This year, we are delighted to be joined by the Revd Canon Kate Bottley, who will preach at the act of worship in St Peter's Square. Widely known for her ministry as an Anglican priest, writer, broadcaster and journalist, we are thrilled Kate will be leading the worship, and invite you to come along to line the streets and join in on the day.
