HOLY COMMUNION DURING ORDINARY TIME

The Church of England operates an “open table” policy and Christians of all Churches are welcome to make their communion with us. The Church does not require you to be confirmed.

We seek to be an inclusive Church and people of all faiths, ages, ability, race, gender and sexuality are welcome in our midst.

Jesus seeks to unite all peoples, not divide with false barriers of prejudice and ignorance.

Ordinary Time

Ordinary Time is the longest season in the Church's year. There are thirty three weeks, divided into two sections; one short and the other very long.

The weeks between the Christmas and Lent seasons are the shorter part of Ordinary Time while the weeks between Pentecost and Advent season form the long stretch.

The word 'ordinary' comes from the word ordinal which means 'counted'.

Each week is known by a number, e.g. the 20th Sunday in Ordinary Time.

The use of the term Ordinary Time distinguishes it from the other seasons - Advent, Christmas, Lent and Easter - which focus on particular aspects of the life of Jesus: his birth, suffering, death and resurrection.

Ordinary Time celebrates Jesus' teaching and ministry. It gives us opportunity to reflect on how we live as Christians, to look at and 'order' our lives while we read and reflect on one of the Gospels. The Church has a three-year cycle for focussing on a particular Gospel so that we can enter it more deeply.

Year A – The Gospel of Matthew

Year B – The Gospel of Mark

Year C – The Gospel of Luke

The colour of Ordinary Time is green,
the rich colour of growth and new life.

The spirituality of Ordinary Time contains the essence of who we are in the 'everydayness' of our Christian lives. Ordinary Time deserves to be lived extraordinarily—in the depths of our own hearts, in our families and in the worshipping community.

THE GATHERING

Opening hymn

In the name of the Father, and of the Son,
and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

The Lord be with you
and also with you.

Prayer of Preparation

Almighty God,
to whom all hearts are open,
all desires known,
and from whom no secrets are hidden:
cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you,
and worthily magnify your holy name;
through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Prayers of penitence

We come to God as one from whom no secrets are hidden, to ask for forgiveness and peace.

a time of quiet reflection

Together we confess:

God of mercy,
we acknowledge that we are all sinners.
We turn from the wrong
that we have thought and said and done,
and are mindful of all that we have failed to do.
For the sake of Jesus, who died for us,
forgive us for all that is past,
and help us to live each day in the light of Christ our Lord.
Amen.

The God of love and power forgive you and free you from your sins, heal and strengthen you by his Spirit,
and raise you to new life in Christ our Lord.
Amen.

GLORIA

The Gloria may be sung or said

Sung Glory, glory, glory to the Lord,
Glory to the Lord God Almighty.
Glory, glory, glory to the Lord,
Glory to the Lord God Almighty.
Who was and is and is to come,
Glory, Glory to the Lord

Or said

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father,
we worship you; we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us; you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

The LITURGY of the SACRAMENT

The Peace

God is love and those who live in love live in God and God lives in them.

The peace of the Lord be always with you
and also with you.

Let us offer one another a sign of peace.

Offertory hymn

We no longer pass a collection plate during this hymn, please see the back of this service book for ways of making your offering

Eucharistic Prayer

The Lord be with you
and also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give thanks and praise.

Blessed are you, Lord God, our light and our salvation;
to you be glory and praise for ever.

From the beginning you have created all things and all your works echo the silent music of your praise.
In the fullness of time you give us breath and speech, that with angels and archangels and all the powers of heaven we may find a voice to sing your praise:

Sung Holy, holy, holy is the Lord, Holy is the Lord God Almighty.
Holy, holy, holy is the Lord, Holy is the Lord God Almighty. Who was and is and is to come, Holy,
holy, holy is the Lord.

Said Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

How wonderful the work of your hands, O Lord.
As a mother tenderly gathers her children,
you embraced a people as your own.
When they turned away and rebelled
your love remained steadfast.

From them you raised up Jesus our Saviour,
born of Mary, to be the living bread,
in whom all our hungers are satisfied.
He offered his life for sinners,
and with a love stronger than death
he opened wide his arms on the cross.

On the night before he died,
he came to supper with his friends and,
taking bread, he gave you thanks.
He broke it and gave it to them, saying:

Take, eat; this is my body
which is given for you;
do this in remembrance of me.

At the end of supper, taking the cup of wine,
he gave you thanks, and said:
Drink this, all of you;
this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many
for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it,
in remembrance of me.

Great is the mystery of faith:

Christ has died:

Christ is risen:

Christ will come again.

Father, we plead with confidence his sacrifice made once for all upon the cross;
we remember his dying and rising in glory,
and we rejoice that he intercedes for us at your right hand.
Pour out your Holy Spirit as we bring before you these gifts of your creation;✠
may they be for us the body and blood of your dear Son.

As we eat and drink these holy things in your presence,
form us in the likeness of Christ,
and build us into a living temple to your glory.

Bring us at the last with all the saints to the vision of that eternal splendour for which you have created us;
through Jesus Christ, our Lord,
by whom, with whom, and in whom,
with all who stand before you in earth and heaven,
we worship you, Father almighty,
in songs of everlasting praise:

Blessing and honour and glory and power be yours for ever and ever.

Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

As our saviour taught us, so we pray:

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours
now and for ever.
Amen.

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ Though we are many, we are one body, because we all share in one bread.

Sung Jesus, Jesus, Jesus is the Lamb,
Jesus is the Lamb of God.
Jesus, Jesus, Jesus is the Lamb,
Jesus is the Lamb of God.
Who was and is and is to come,
Jesus, Jesus, Jesus is the Lamb.

Said Jesus, Lamb of God, have mercy on us.
Jesus, bearer of our sins, have mercy on us.
Jesus, redeemer of the world, grant us peace.

Invitation to Communion

Jesus is the Lamb of God
who takes away the sins of the world.
Happy are those who are called to his supper.

Lord, I am not worthy to receive you,
but only say the word and I shall be healed.

All are now welcome to come for communion. Please put your hands out to receive the bread and respond 'Amen'
If you would prefer a blessing simply keep your hands lowered and bow your head.

Prayer after Communion

Silence may be kept following which a prayer suitable for the Sunday or Season may be used. We then say together:

Father of all,
we give you thanks and praise,
that when we were still far off
you met us in your Son and brought us home.
Dying and living, he declared your love,
gave us grace, and opened the gate of glory.
May we who share Christ's body live his risen life;
we who drink his cup bring life to others;
we whom the Spirit lights give light to the world.
Keep us firm in the hope you have set before us,
so we and all your children shall be free,
and the whole earth live to praise your name;
through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Notices and Banns of marriage may now be given

Blessing

God the Holy Trinity
make you strong in faith and love,
defend you on every side,
and guide you in truth and peace
and the blessing of God, Creator, Redeemer and Sustainer be with you this day and always.
Amen
