11am Parish Eucharist

The Second Sunday after Trinity

It's wonderful to have you with us this morning, as we gather to worship together in this beautiful parish church. Don't hesitate to speak to our sidesperson if there is anything you need, and please do come and join us in the Choir House for refreshments after the service.

A loop system is installed in Church. If you wear a hearing aid, please tune it to 'T'. If you need gluten free communion wafers, please make yourself known to the vicar, a churchwarden or any church officials.

Kindly remember in your prayers the school and their families, and the wider school community.

Prayers have also been asked for Joyce, Erica, Christine, Sarah, Deb, Mollie, Jean, Barbara, Andrew P, Hannah, Lyn, Andrew, Karen, Sylvia Goodliffe, and Ester Young.

We remember Anthony Corden and Ernest Baxter, who have died recently.

Collect

Lord, you have taught us
that all our doings without love are nothing worth:
send your Holy Spirit
and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of love,
the true bond of peace and of all virtues,
without which whoever lives is counted dead before you.
Grant this for your only Son Jesus Christ's sake,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

Readings

Exodus 19.2–8a

They had journeyed from Rephidim, entered the wilderness of Sinai, and camped in the wilderness; Israel camped there in front of the mountain. Then Moses went up to God; the Lord called to him from the mountain, saying, 'Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob, and tell the Israelites: You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself. Now therefore, if you obey my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my treasured possession out of all the peoples. Indeed, the whole earth is mine, but you shall be for me a priestly kingdom and a holy nation. These are the words that you shall speak to the Israelites.'

So Moses came, summoned the elders of the people, and set before them all these words that the Lord had commanded him. The people all answered as one: 'Everything that the Lord has spoken we will do.'

This is the Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Psalm 100

1 O be joyful in the Lord, all the earth;
serve the Lord with gladness
and come before his presence with a song.

2 Know that the Lord is God;
it is he that has made us and we are his;
we are his people and the sheep of his pasture.

3 Enter his gates with thanksgiving
and his courts with praise;
give thanks to him and bless his name.

4 For the Lord is gracious; his steadfast love is everlasting,
and his faithfulness endures from generation to generation.

Romans 5.1–8

Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Matthew 9.35–10.8

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and curing every disease and every sickness. When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest.'

Then Jesus summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to cure every disease and every sickness. These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon, also known as Peter, and his brother Andrew; James son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax-collector; James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed him.

These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: 'Go nowhere among the Gentiles, and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, proclaim the good news, "The kingdom of heaven has come near."'

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

Notices

Cheddleton Open Gardens 20 & 21 June

We're really looking forward to this year's Cheddleton Open Gardens weekend and would love your help to make it a wonderful event!

If you enjoy baking, we would be very grateful for donations of homemade goodies such as cakes, tray bakes, cupcakes, flapjacks, sausage rolls, gluten-free treats, or anything delicious you'd like to share. We are also looking for volunteers to help serve refreshments on each day from 10:30am to 3:30pm.

If you are able to help with baking or volunteering (or both!), please add your name to the sign-up sheet at the back of the church, or have a chat with Pam or Agnes. Thank you!

Choral Evensong

We warmly invite musicians of all ages, from first-timers to seasoned performers, to join us our choir for our next service of Choral Evensong on Wednesday, 24 June at 3:30 pm.

Our final rehearsal is 18 June at 6:30pm.

A Walk through Creation & Sundaes Sunday

We will be joining other local churches for a joint prayer initiative between 9 and 12 July. St Edward's will be open as usual throughout these days. There will be a number of displays, inviting visitors to explore to beauty and fragility of God's world. Visitors will be given a "pilgrim passport", directing them to the six other churches participating in the event (including St Andrew's).

On Sunday, 12 July (2pm), we will be celebrating God's creativeness by making (assembling!) ice-creams together. Do come along: it's sure to be fun!

The "Walk through Creation" event concludes on the Sunday afternoon with a service at St Philip & James (Werrington) at 4pm. All welcome.
