

Celebration of Sacred Music Making

Sunday 14th June 2.00pm

St Ambrose with St Leonard

The Celebration of Sacred Music Making is a new event bringing together the churches of East Bristol to showcase the diversity of music making to support worship in our local community.

Each group will perform a couple of items, and all the groups will come together for a grand finale to show the power of sacred music to offer a glimpse of the divine.

All welcome!