62 High St, Salisbury, Choir members, and on the door

You are warmly invited to our Summer Concert, where you will hear a mixture of both British Folk Songs and American Jazz Standards, interspersed with readings ranging from Shakespeare to F. Scott Fitzgerald, to link the two genres.

This will be a lovely Summer's evening concert. Come along with your friends, to experience the love, longing and heart-break of such folk songs as The water is wide and She moved through the fair, the cheerful gaiety of The Keel Row and Bobby Shafto, and the beautiful melodies and luscious harmonies of Cole Porter, George Shearing and Marvin Hamlisch.

We are delighted to be joined by Lisa Day and Robert Gordon Clark, founders of PlayGC Theatre Company
