

The Musical Lunchbox

Lunchtime is the time for music at St. Margaret's Church, Topsham

FREE concerts
Wednesdays
1:15 to 2:00 pm

BRING YOUR SANDWICHES!

- | | |
|-----------------------|--|
| 2nd September | "Cello for Two" Jane Greenwood & Annabel Rooney
present music from the Baroque era to the present day |
| 9th September | "Flute Cake" Ruth Molins, Jennifer Campbell &
Sophie Brewer play music from 18th - 21st century |
| 16th September | The RSVP Trio Melanie Mehta, soprano ,
John Draisey, piano & Stephen Myers, recorders |
| 23rd September | Joyce Clarke returns to St. Margaret's for a recital of classical and romantic piano music |
| 30th September | Organ Recital Timothy Noon (Director of Music,
Exeter Cathedral) plays "The King Of Instruments" |
| 7th October | Topsham Singing Groups The Decibelles &
The Barolotones , directed by Matthew Gardner |
| 14th October | Trios by Farrenc and Martinu Robert Stephenson,
flute , Amye Farrell, cello & Roger Stephenson, piano |
| 21st October | Wood Farm Wind Quintet A unique sound from five different wind instruments skilfully combined |
| 28th October | "Quay Note Singers" & "Exmouth Singing for Fun" community choirs led by Sarah Pennington |