From Revd Sarah

Whilst we are all 'getting ready' for Christmas, -and this year the Church of England's theme is The Gift of Christmas, which feels so helpful amid the secular onslaught-, November is still a helpful month in its own right. It's a month for Remembrance, for All Souls and All Saints and our In Memory Service (4pm 15th November at St Mary's) the Kingdom season as we end the Church's year with Christ the King, and for the beginning of Advent.
Lots then to enter in to before the turn of year into December.

A particular welcome from me to our Advent Sunday Benefice Communion on 29th November this year in Mollington amongst the Trees of the Festival there. At 10am.

With my prayers, and warm regards.
