“Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again, but those who drink of the water that I will give them will never be thirsty. The water that I will give will become in them a spring of water gushing up to eternal life.”

Prayer for this week

Dear Lord,
life ambushes us, it's the nature of things.
This broken world side-tracks and distracts us, it is full of traps, temptations and terrors,
and we fall at times,
frequently, daily, sometimes hour by hour.
It's the nature of us.
We are flawed, fragile, frantic beings, hungry for satisfaction, for a quick fix, for an escape.
Have mercy on us, O God, according to your extraordinary love; according to your kindness, compassion and crucified grace.
Please deal with our wrongdoing, remove the stains, heal the past, and lift the guilt. We offer you all that we are - our mistakes, our falling short, our regrets, our strengths and weaknesses, disasters and triumphs.
Our moments of following you, and our moments of meandering.
We are wayward people, but because of you, we are not lost, Forgiveness is possible, hope is on the agenda,
and a fresh start is offered to us, each minute, each hour, each day.
Because of you, because of your love, and because of all you have done.
We thank you,
in the name of your compassionate, courageous son.

Thought for this week

Our Gospel reading today is about a woman who experienced tragedy in her life, but thankfully she also experienced an encounter with Jesus - the one who met her deepest needs; the one who knew her by name.

I'm sure the following words would have resonated with her - and hopefully with us too.

Do not be afraid, for I have redeemed you.
I have called you by name, you are mine.

When you walk through the waters I'll be with you
You will never sink beneath the waves.

When the fire is burning all around you
You will never be consumed by the flames.

When the fear of loneliness is looming Then remember I am at your side.

You are mine, O my child, I am your Father
And I love you with a perfect love.

The encounter with Jesus at the well, resulting in a relationship with him, was for this woman, living water - water that didn't merely quench her thirst, but gave her a whole new sense of being known and loved.

Palm Sunday services as a first Sunday we are trying a new pattern of services on 5th April. We will have an 8.00am Holy Communion, a 9.30am traditional Service of the Word (no communion), an 11.00am Celebration service which will be very informal and child – friendly, and an 11.00am Communion service at Ringland. We will then decide whether this will be a pattern for future first Sundays
