

Holy Trinity Ripon

Latest News

Our usual weekly notices at this time have been suspended. For the foreseeable future please refer to our web site at www.holytrinityripon.org.uk or our facebook page at www.facebook.com/holytrinityripon/ to see the news we have about Holy Trinity Ripon and its response to the current situation.

There are other ways to find out our latest news. Firstly, look out for e-mails sent from Chris and the Office – you will receive these if you ordinarily receive the weekly news sheet. As you know, we previously tried to limit e-mails to one or possibly two messages per week, but with the rapidly changing situation these messages will be more frequent at this time. If you would like to receive these e-mail updates please contact our office by e-mail: office@holytrinityripon.org.uk

Our Facebook page is being posted to very frequently. For those on Facebook please like our page and get the latest news. For those not on Facebook you can still read what is being posted but not respond to messages simply by following this link: Holy Trinity Facebook Page Please note we are not using Facebook as a main form of messaging, please continue to use our e-mail address for communication

(office@holytrinityripon.org.uk)

Regardless of the above our latest news now follows:

Services and Events

Services are being live streamed on our Facebook page and recordings of these are also available here and additionally on our web site.

We are arranging a number of courses that happen on-line, please see our web site for details of these.

We have a number of House Groups that now meet on-line. If you would like to join one of these please contact the office and they will be able to put you in touch with one of these groups.

Prayer

Of course prayer at this time is most important. There are many opportunities for you to get involved. Here are some ways:

Pray in May This 24/7 prayer event allows you to sign up for slots. See our Facebook page for details.

Morning Prayer. Chris and others are committing to saying Morning Prayer at 8:30 am every morning. There is an open invitation to join in with this act of prayer at home by going to the Church of England web site where you can find links to all the Daily Office prayers. If you can pray at the same time as Chris and the team this is great but not absolutely necessary. If you visit the site you will see there are lots of different times you can pray. The link to these prayers are available on the Church of England website.

Please note we are not inviting people to physically come to Church to join in with the prayer at 8:30 am.

Prayer in Church. Following the announcement from Boris Johnson our Prime Minister we unfortunately cannot currently allow public access to Holy Trinity Church.

Help of all kind. At the present time we are not formally helping. This is to say, we have not mobilised formal support groups – although some informal groupings have been set up. We are trying to comply with the requirements of the country in helping to prevent transfer of the Coronavirus. Come back to this page for advice on any telephone numbers you can use. You can of course drop an e-mail to office@holytrinityripon.org.uk and we will then seek to help if we can. You can also leave a message on the office telephone number (01765 690930) – but the office is not open on a regular basis

Please visit our Facebook page and web site to see further updates. God bless you.
