Church Family News Remembrance Sunday, 8th November

St Michael's

It is 100 years since Tettenhall War Memorial was established outside St Michael's Church and it has now been beautifully restored. Regrettably, it has not been possible suitably to mark this. This is keenly felt on Remembrance Sunday.

Following the advice of Wolverhampton City Council during the COVID-19 restrictions, there will not be a public Act of Remembrance at the War Memorial. A small private Act of Remembrance will take place there starting at 10.55am and will be live streamed on St Michael's Facebook Page

<https://www.facebook.com/stmichaelstettenhall>

The Sunday Eucharist will take place at 10.30am, pausing for an Act of Remembrance inside the Church, while the short private service takes place outside.

As on other Sundays, to avoid exceeding our socially distanced capacity, it is essential for those who wish to be present for the service in Church to book-in, either by phone to the Church Office (01902 751622 tettenhallregis@gmail.com) or through the online booking system bit.ly/churchbooking

Those who wish their wreaths to be laid at the War Memorial are invited to bring them to the Church on Saturday 7 November between 11am and 12.30pm. They will then be placed on the War Memorial on Remembrance Sunday.

Holy Cross

There will not be a public Act of Remembrance at the memorial on the green this year.

Our Sunday Eucharist will take place at its normal time of 10.45am, pausing for an Act of Remembrance in church at 11.00am, when the sanctus bell will be rung.

Although we will not be inviting guests and visitors to church on this occasion, it is advisable for those who wish to be present for the service in Church to book-in, either by phone, to Simon (01902 212405, simon@sdouglas.org) or via the online booking system bit.ly/churchbooking.

We are inviting the local schools to assist in creating a display of painted stones, which we hope to be able to place around the Memorial.

Christ the King

Since we are unable to gather as we would normally, we are hoping to make a display of painted stones. We have a supply of suitable stones, or you are welcome to find your own.

We will be inviting them to be placed by the cross, in front of church, to which poppies can be added.

The Sunday Eucharist will take place at 10.00am, as usual, concluding with an Act of Remembrance around the cross, weather permitting.

Harvest Donations

Thank you for all the contributions to our harvest donations. The Well are extremely grateful for the much-needed supplies.

Further donations of food and toiletries can be made at collection points in St. Michael's, Holy Cross and Christ the King and money can now be made directly to The Well. For more information, of items in particular short supply, check their website, thewellwolverhampton.co.uk/ or given them a call, 01902 256523.

Looking further ahead

All Souls/Memorial

The parish memorial will again be streamed to the parish facebook page, inviting families to let us know names for inclusion, and to have a candle to hand, to light at the time of reflection. This will be at 6.30pm on Sunday 1st November.

Holy Cross is looking to have a service in church at 4.00pm on Sunday 1st November, for All Souls, during which names of those who have died, both recently and longer ago, will be remembered. There will be a sign-up sheet for attendance and inclusion of names.

Advent & Christmas

Since we are likely to still be severely restricted in our services and other activities this winter, we are exploring offering recorded and streamed services. If you have ideas as to how we may do so, and are interested in supporting both in-church and online services, with readings, hymns & songs, prayers, etc., please speak to one of the clergy.

Coming to church on Sunday – let us know!

With social distancing still required, those who wish to come to church, please use our online facility via this link bit.ly/churchbooking or contact The Parish Office directly to book. (See contacts at the end of the email).

Sadly, no singing is allowed and no sharing of the peace. The congregation can receive communion (though not from the cup). Under the latest Government guidelines, Face covering is required – see details below.

Face Coverings in Church

Face coverings are required in places of worship. Please ensure that your mask covers your mouth and nose. With sufficient physical distance those leading services, preaching, reading and leading intercessions can remove the face coverings to assist with communication. During the distribution of communion, a mask will be worn by the priest.

Online Worship – IT opportunity

As the churches begin to open, we seek to continue online worship for our Parish and beyond! We are now livestreaming services directly from our churches. Could you provide IT support to facilitate the live-streaming of one service a week? This would be across the parish, a different church every week! If you are technically minded and can see yourself as an IT technician and broadcaster for the Parish (or within your own church), please contact either Richard Reeve or Simon Douglas.

Online Giving

Although our churches are still at reduced capacity on a Sunday morning, we are still the church; gathering again, or meeting virtually for prayer, services and fellowship, loving our neighbours by offering practical support and caring for our communities.

The work of our church relies on people's generosity, which is a hallmark of a lived-out faith and we are very grateful for the regular giving that continues. With the closure or reduction of public worship we cannot receive all the gifts that we usually would, so we really need your help now.

The Diocese has now made available a facility to make an online donation entering your payment details and selecting your church from a drop-down list using the Donate Now page Or please contact Keith at the Parish Office –01902 751622, tettenhallregis@gmail.com.

Daily Hope

Daily Hope is a free national phone line, set up by the Church of England, in order to bring worship and prayer into people's homes while church buildings are closed because of the coronavirus.

Available 24 hours a day, on 0800 804 8044, the line has been set up particularly with those unable to join online church services during the period of restrictions in mind.

Daily Prayer online

Sunday worship and Daily Prayer is being livestreamed to the Parish Facebook page, fb.me/tettenhallregis/ Sunday worship is now streamed from one of the Churches each week and the time will vary accordingly.

The services being streamed each day are as follows
