Reflection:

Today's Gospel reading has such a great 'human' picture of the Disciples, not full of faith and holiness but rather a bunch of people who didn't understand what Jesus was telling them and who argued with one another about which of them was the greatest!

You might say they behaved like children (although in my experience there are many children who behave much better – so it's something of an insult!) perhaps Jesus knew what children were really like because in the end it is a child, he uses to help them understand.

Jesus ... took a little child and put it among them; and taking it in his arms, he said to them, "Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me"

To be fair on the disciples it may not have been surprising they were confused but for us after the death and resurrection of Jesus it is all much clearer.

This is not about who is the greatest or the most important. When we care for and welcome the weakest and most vulnerable in our society we welcome Jesus, and in welcoming Jesus we welcome God the Holy Trinity – creator of the universe, saviour and sustainer.

Perhaps we can think about the places where we can offer welcome and care to those who are most vulnerable in our world right now.

Revd. Alison

Coffee Morning: Skeffington Church:

Many thanks to everyone who supported us last Saturday, whether by coming along, donating books, cakes and prizes or manning the stalls. It was a very happy occasion, and we are delighted to announce that we raised over a thousand pounds.

Bible Readings for Sunday 19th

September: Trinity Sixteen

First Reading: Jeremiah 11: 18-20 (NRSV)

¹⁸ It was the LORD who made it known to me, and I knew; then you showed me their evil deeds.

¹⁹ But I was like a gentle lamb led to the slaughter.

And I did not know it was against me that they devised schemes, saying, "Let us destroy the tree with its fruit, let us cut him off from the land of the living, so that his name will no longer be remembered!"

²⁰ But you, O LORD of hosts, who judge righteously, who try the heart and the mind, let me see your retribution upon them, for to you I have committed my cause

Gospel Reading: Mark 9: 30 - 37 (NRSV)

³⁰ They went on from there and passed through Galilee. He did not want anyone to know it; ³¹ for he was teaching his disciples, saying to them, "The Son of Man is to be betrayed into human hands, and they will kill him, and three days after being killed, he will rise again." ³² But they did not understand what he was saying and were afraid to ask him.

³³ Then they came to Capernaum; and when he was in the house he asked them, "What were you arguing about on the way?" ³⁴ But they were silent, for on the way they had argued with one another who was the greatest. ³⁵ He sat down, called the twelve, and said to them, "Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all." ³⁶ Then he took a little child and put it among them; and taking it in his arms, he said to them, ³⁷ "Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me."

David & Helen Newman Special prayers from Launde Abbey:

Bishop Martyn, Dean David and others gathered with David and Helen Newman at the cathedral last week to mark their retirement from current roles in the diocese but also in thankfulness for many years of ministry in our midst.

They were joined by members of the Bishop's Leadership Team, Cathedral, members of senior staff, and lay leaders to pray together for them as they move to the next stage of life and ministry.

A presentation of a print was made. The image is of the Cathedral created by local artist Sarah Kirby. It was made on behalf of us all as a token our gratitude and the enormous esteem in which they are held.

Summer Afternoon Teas: Gaulby Church

Due to Covid, we were unable to start 'Teas' as early as usual this year but over the summer it's been a real pleasure to welcome so many of you on a Saturday afternoon for tea and a chance to chat. We have really appreciated seeing our visitors and are very grateful to all those who helped in any way behind the scenes. An extra bonus is that we've been able to add over £630 to church funds and to donate £90 to Abigail Rees's event for Breast Aware. Please look out for other goings on in Gaulby.

We have two concerts coming up (3rd November and 15th December) and Lent lunches will soon be upon us! Meanwhile, keep safe and we hope to see you again next summer.
