The Collect: The Sunday Next Before Advent Christ the King:

Eternal Father,
 whose Son Jesus Christ ascended to the throne of heaven
 that he might rule over all things as Lord and King:
 keep the Church in the unity of the Spirit
 and in the bond of peace,
 and bring the whole created order to worship at his feet;
 who is alive and reigns with you,
 in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
 one God, now and for ever.
Amen

Reflection for The Sunday Next Before Advent, Christ the King

This, the last Sunday in the church's year, we celebrate the feast of Christ the King, our Redeemer King, King of the Creation, whose just and gentle rule is supreme. (Think of Graham Sutherland's tapestry in Coventry Cathedral.)

However, our Gospel reading tells of Christ being mocked as a false messiah by Jewish leaders, Roman soldiers, most likely the onlookers and one of the criminals dying beside him.

Hardly the attributes of a king. The Gospel shows us our king executed as a cursed criminal. His crown - a crown of thorns.

What is it that qualified Jesus for paradise? What turns the crown of thorns into the crown of our heavenly king? In the Gospel there is little sense of regal triumph but there is a lot of grace. There's forgiveness - Father forgive them for they know not what they do. There's Christ's dignity when he was being mocked and jeered. There's his steadfastness when the crowd call on him to save himself. There's his compassion, understanding and friendship towards the criminal who realises that Jesus, unlike the other two, is innocent.

Isn't this what we'd like from our leaders today?

Power is often both addictive and toxic. Once people have it in their hands, they can find it difficult to let it go and the temptation to abuse power is ever-present. Throughout his life on earth, Christ taught us in so many ways that he did not come to be served but to serve and we are called to the same service. As the old year ends and we look towards Advent, remember that the cross was not the end but that it became the throne of Christ the King, who uses his power to serve and save. In our prayers, let's resolve to follow in the footsteps of Christ our King.

The Sunday Next Before Advent
Christ the King

Jeremiah 23:1-6

New Revised Standard Version, Anglicised
Restoration after Exile

23 Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! says the Lord. ² Therefore, thus says the Lord, the God of Israel, concerning the shepherds who shepherd my people: It is you who have scattered my flock, and have driven them away, and you have not attended to them. So I will attend to you for your evil doings, says the Lord. ³ Then I myself will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the lands where I have driven them, and I will bring them back to their fold, and they shall be fruitful and multiply. ⁴ I will raise up shepherds over them who will shepherd them, and they shall not fear any longer, or be dismayed, nor shall any be missing, says the Lord.

The Righteous Branch of David

⁵ The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. ⁶ In his days Judah will be saved and Israel will live in safety. And this is the name by which he will be called: 'The Lord is our righteousness.'

Colossians 1:11-20

New Revised Standard Version, Anglicised

¹¹ May you be made strong with all the strength that comes from his glorious power, and may you be prepared to endure everything with patience, while joyfully ¹² giving thanks to the Father, who has enabled you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light. ¹³ He has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of his beloved Son, ¹⁴ in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

The Supremacy of Christ

¹⁵ He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation; ¹⁶ for in him all things in heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or powers—all things have been created through him and for him. ¹⁷ He himself is before all things, and in him all things hold together. ¹⁸ He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything. ¹⁹ For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, ²⁰ and through him God was pleased to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, by making peace through the blood of his cross.

Luke 23:33-43

New Revised Standard Version, Anglicised

³³ When they came to the place that is called The Skull, they crucified Jesus there with the criminals, one on his right and one on his left. ³⁴ Then Jesus said, 'Father, forgive them; for they do not know what they are doing.' And they cast lots to divide his clothing. ³⁵ And the people stood by, watching; but the leaders scoffed at him, saying, 'He saved others; let him save himself if he is the Messiah of God, his chosen one!' ³⁶ The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him sour wine, ³⁷ and saying, 'If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!' ³⁸ There was also an inscription over him, 'This is the King of the Jews.'

³⁹ One of the criminals who were hanged there kept deriding him and saying, 'Are you not the Messiah? Save yourself and us!' ⁴⁰ But the other rebuked him, saying, 'Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation?' ⁴¹ And we indeed have been condemned justly, for we are getting what we deserve for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong.' ⁴² Then he said, 'Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.' ⁴³ He replied, 'Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise.'

Additional Prayer for the Day: The Sunday Next Before Advent
Christ the King:

God the Father,
help us to hear the call of Christ the King
and to follow in his service,
whose kingdom has no end;
for he reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, one glory.

Amen

Covid News from our partner diocese in Tanzania

Covid apparently never got the memo that it is over and so continues as a threat all over the world. As we get boosted the majority of people in Tanzania still have very low protection with about 97% of the population still NOT vaccinated in and around our link diocese of Kiteto. Earlier this year our diocese supported work amongst local media and churches to counter myths around vaccine hesitancy and to start this mountain climb by encouraging community leaders to take up the vaccine.

Have you been protected from covid? If so, let's show our gratitude to God by helping our brothers and sisters get the same benefit. Our link Diocese of Kiteto have asked for our support to:

1. Run local TV and radio educational covid programmes
2. Produce promotional materials
3. Support the governmental vaccination programme through the Kiteto Dispensary
4. Help target vaccine to the high-risk groups

If 1,100 of us offered £5 in gratitude for our protection we can raise the money requested. It could be the cost of living for some. If you can help, please send donations to:
