The Collect: The Second Sunday before

Advent:

Heavenly Father,
whose blessed Son was revealed to destroy the works of the devil and to make us the children of God and heirs of eternal life:

grant that we, having this hope,
may purify ourselves even as he is pure;
that when he shall appear in power and great glory
we may be made like him in his eternal and glorious kingdom;

where he is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

Reflection for Remembrance Day

On the night before he was crucified, Jesus shared what we now call the Last Supper with his friends. What he was actually sharing was the Passover meal. This is still very much a family meal with the purpose of remembering how God rescued his people from slavery in Egypt. There is a set liturgy in which children ask questions of the adults about what is being celebrated and the answers relate the story of the Exodus. The emphasis is on remembering and ensuring that future generations know of God's love and grace towards his people. Jesus echoed this as he offered bread and wine telling his friends to 'do this in remembrance of me'. This has become the central part of our Communion service as we remember all that he has done for us. This week we remember all those who gave their lives so that future generations may be freed from the evil acts of war. First comes Armistice Day when those involved in the Great War were first remembered and then Remembrance Sunday when we meet together to remember those from our own communities who made the final sacrifice. Now sadly there have been other wars, many still going on, and many more names of both men and women to be added to those on our war memorials. My own father served throughout World War two and thankfully returned - otherwise I would not have been born, and so on Sunday I will not only remember those who gave their lives but also give thanks to God for those who came back, many of course with both physical and mental injuries, thus in some way continuing to make their sacrifice. It is important that children and future generations know our story and continue to remember. As we look around our world and its history, we may feel despair but we must remember that our hope is in Jesus Christ who promised us that he will give us that peace which the world cannot give. As well as praying for peace in our world and in specific situations, let us never forget to pray for the peace of Christ, who is the Prince of Peace.

Revd Christine Blodwell

Bible Readings:

Sunday 13th November 2022

The Second Sunday before Advent

Malachi 4:1-2

New Revised Standard Version, Anglicised

The Great Day of the Lord

4 See, the day is coming, burning like an oven, when all the arrogant and all evildoers will be stubble; the day that comes shall burn them up, says the Lord of hosts, so that it will leave them neither root nor branch. <sup>2</sup> But for you who revere my name the sun of righteousness shall rise, with healing in its wings. You shall go out leaping like calves from the stall.

2 Thessalonians 3:6-13

Warning against idleness

<sup>6</sup> Now we command you, beloved, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to keep away from believers who are living in idleness and not according to the tradition that they received from us. <sup>7</sup> For you yourselves know how you ought to imitate us; we were not idle when we were with you, <sup>8</sup> and we did not eat anyone's bread without paying for it; but with toil and labour we worked night and day, so that we might not burden any of you. <sup>9</sup> This was not because we do not have that right, but in order to give you an example to imitate. <sup>10</sup> For even when we were with you, we gave you this command: Anyone unwilling to work should not eat. <sup>11</sup> For we hear that some of you are living in idleness, mere busybodies, not doing any work. <sup>12</sup> Now such persons we command and exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ to do their work quietly and to earn their own living. <sup>13</sup> Brothers and sisters, do not be weary in doing what is right.

Luke 21:5-19

New Revised Standard Version, Anglicised

The Destruction of the Temple Foretold

<sup>5</sup> When some were speaking about the temple, how it was adorned with beautiful stones and gifts dedicated to God, he said, <sup>6</sup> 'As for these things that you see, the days will come when not one stone will be left upon another; all will be thrown down.'

Signs and Persecutions

<sup>7</sup> They asked him, 'Teacher, when will this be, and what will be the sign that this is about to take place?' <sup>8</sup> And he said, 'Beware that you are not led astray; for many will come in my name and say, "I am he!" and, "The time is near!" Do not go after them.

<sup>9</sup> 'When you hear of wars and insurrections, do not be terrified; for these things must take place first, but the end will not follow immediately.' <sup>10</sup> Then he said to them, 'Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; <sup>11</sup> there will be great earthquakes, and in various places famines and plagues; and there will be dreadful portents and great signs from heaven.

<sup>12</sup> 'But before all this occurs, they will arrest you and persecute you; they will hand you over to synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors because of my name. <sup>13</sup> This will give you an opportunity to testify. <sup>14</sup> So make up your minds not to prepare your defence in advance; <sup>15</sup> for I will give you words and a wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to withstand or contradict. <sup>16</sup> You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, by relatives and friends; and they will put some of you to death. <sup>17</sup> You will be hated by all because of my name. <sup>18</sup> But not a hair of your head will perish. <sup>19</sup> By your endurance you will gain your souls.

Additional Prayer for the Day: The Second Sunday before Advent:

Heavenly Lord,
you long for the world's salvation:
stir us from apathy,
restrain us from excess
and revive in us new hope that all creation will one day be healed
in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

Launde Carols and Christmas Lunch

Following our enjoyment of this event last year we have made a booking for Monday 12th December. Carols start at 12.00pm, followed by a 3 course, traditional Christmas lunch (a vegetarian option is available). We have been able to reserve a booking for 20 people. As we would have been split up in the dining room, we have booked a private room, although this does involve an additional cost. The cost of the meal will be £29 per person.

Final payment has to be made to Launde on Friday November 11th so please let Mary Twidell know by Thursday 10th November if you wish to go.

Contact Mary on mary.twidell@gmail.com or on 01858 555204. Mary will make the payment to Launde and collect from those attending later.

This is a popular event so the places are 'first come first served'.

We hope you can join us.

Donations needed for the civilian people of Kharkiv region

Saturday 19th November 2-4pm Tugby Church

A message from Ann and Philip Baughan:

As you may know, there are many Ukrainian guests living in our local communities in East Leicestershire and Rutland. Some of you will have met our guest, Margarita, and she is now asking for help for civilians living in the region of Kharkiv. Considerable damage has been caused by the Russian invasion and shelling continues even after the invaders have been repelled. As winter approaches, civilians need warm clothing, food and material to repair broken windows.

If you can provide any of the following items, please bring them to the drop-in event at Tugby Church on Saturday 19th November between 2-4pm or else bring them to The Old Farmhouse, Chapel Lane, Tugby.

- Food with a long use-by date (tinned/dried/packets etc) e.g. tinned meat, fish, fruit & vegetables; pasta and rice; cup-a-soup; protein bars...
- hygiene products
- nappies
- warm clothes, shoes, socks and gloves
- duvets
- polythene and plywood for broken windows
- headlamps for doctors.

After the drop-in, Margarita will arrange for everything to be delivered directly to Ukraine. This way, she can ensure that it will actually reach those who need it.
