From Jane Skinner

Weren't we fortunate to be on Hartland cliffs on Sunday rather than Monday morning to greet the Son and the sun?! Sunshine after storm, peace after high winds – there is always change. Jesus' resurrection body is encountered in new ways as he materialises amongst the disciples behind locked doors but also in reassuring ways with breakfast at the shoreside.

The disciples are learning whom Jesus, who is also 'the Christ', is having conquered death and been raised to life. Amazingly, God includes us and we learn how to become an Easter people, saying 'Alleluia!' frequently can be a start. Jane
