Third Sunday of Lent

Sunday 3rd March 2024

-Sung Eucharist 10am

Rev'd Emma Durose

Collect:

Almighty God,

whose most dear Son went not up to joy but first he suffered pain, and entered not into glory before he was crucified: mercifully grant that we, walking in the way of the cross, may find it none other than the way of life and peace; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A reading from book of Exodus - The Ten Commandments.

Then God spoke all these words: I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery; you shall have no other gods before me.

You shall not make for yourself an idol, whether in the form of anything that is in heaven above, or that is on the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth.

You shall not bow down to them or worship them; for I the LORD your God am a jealous God, punishing children for the iniquity of parents, to the third and the fourth generation of those who reject me, but showing steadfast love to the thousandth generation of those who love me and keep my commandments.

You shall not make wrongful use of the name of the LORD your God, for the LORD will not acquit anyone who misuses his name.

Remember the sabbath day, and keep it holy. Six days you shall labour and do all your work. But the seventh day is a sabbath to the LORD your God; you shall not do any work—you, your son or your daughter, your male or female slave, your livestock, or the alien resident in your towns.

For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, but rested the seventh day; therefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day and consecrated it.

Honour your father and your mother, so that your days may be long in the land that the LORD your God is giving you.

You shall not murder. You shall not commit adultery. You shall not steal.

You shall not bear false witness against your neighbour. You shall not covet your neighbour's house; you shall not covet your neighbour's wife, or male or female slave, or ox, or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbour.

A reading from the first epistle of Paul to the Corinthians - Christ the Power and Wisdom of God.

For the message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.

For it is written, "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and the discernment of the discerning I will thwart."

Where is the one who is wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world?

For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, God decided, through the foolishness of our proclamation, to save those who believe.

For Jews demand signs and Greeks desire wisdom, but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God.

For God's foolishness is wiser than human wisdom, and God's weakness is stronger than human strength.

Gospel according to John - Jesus Cleanses the Temple

The Passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

In the temple he found people selling cattle, sheep, and doves, and the money changers seated at their tables.

Making a whip of cords, he drove all of them out of the temple, both the sheep and the cattle. He also poured out the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables.

He told those who were selling the doves, "Take these things out of here! Stop making my Father's house a marketplace!"

His disciples remembered that it was written, "Zeal for your house will consume me." The Jews then said to him, "What sign can you show us for doing this?"

Jesus answered them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up."

The Jews then said, "This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and will you raise it up in three days?" But he was speaking of the temple of his body.

After he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this; and they believed the scripture and the word that Jesus had spoken.

Post Communion Prayer:

Merciful Lord,

grant your people grace to withstand the temptations of the world, the flesh and the devil, and with pure hearts and minds to follow you, the only God; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

A request on behalf of the Falmouth, Penryn & Surrounding areas CAP Debt Centre:

We have been asked if we can support the Easter Hamper scheme again this year.

A list is placed on the table at the back of church. If you can offer your support by providing any of the items listed, would you kindly sign your name next to the item.

The hope is that all parishes in the deanery might be able to offer much needed items, from the list, to help those less fortunate this Easter.

Weekly Prayer Intentions:

Mission and Ministry of this Parish:

For those living and working in Penryn and surrounding villages. For the parish of St. Gluvias and a growth in our congregation.

For the homeless in our parish and throughout the country. For those that rely on the support of the Foodbank.

We pray for those involved in the selection process to appoint a 'House for Duty' priest (HfD) to assist in the Penryn Benefice.

-We pray for those who have the responsibility of leadership and for our ministry team.

-For those trying to discern God's will and our path.

-For those trying to discern their own calling...or that of others.

-For those who may be called to serve in this Benefice.

For the World:

We pray for victims of terrorism the world over; for all affected by atrocities around the world and for persecuted Christians.

We pray for the people of Ukraine and the people of Russia; for their countries and their leaders.

We call upon you to show mercy to the people Israel and Palestine and protect them.

We pray for leaders on the world stage; that they are inspired by the wisdom and courage of Christ.

We continue to pray for all people fleeing violence and oppression. For all exploited by people smugglers and for refugees across the world.

For those affected by natural disasters around the world. Help us to value the environment so that we can all work to reverse climate change and global warming.

In the Diocese cycle of prayer:

WORLD WILDLIFE DAY –

CREATION CARE For as the rain and snow come down from heaven - heal our land O lord. In our country where only 1 percent of wildflower meadows remain; For as the rain and snow come down from heaven - heal our land O lord. Make us wise in your ways O Lord, slow ways, holy ways, where soil fertility and biodiversity are sacred; For as the rain and snow come down from heaven - heal our land O lord.

Prayer by Ben Lillie, Diocesan Environment Officer

Prayers for the Third Sunday of Lent

In holiness and reverence, let us pray to the Lord of the Church and of all creation.

Keep your Church secure from the dangers of worldliness and greed... Give grace to your ministers, to preach the Gospel of Christ and to fulfil your commandments both in their words and in their lives.

Pity the world where ignorance and prejudice often rule... Give true wisdom to all in authority... Pardon and cleanse the individuals and organisations who goodness have been corrupted by love of gain.

Bless our families and keep them in purity of faith and righteousness of living... Strengthen those in our community who have responsibility for teaching and training, that they may give leadership in the way you have commanded.

Have mercy on those who suffer because they have fallen into evil ways... Restore them in the freedom that is found in Christ alone... Comfort and relieve the victims of lust, dishonesty and violence.

We remember in our prayers those suffering in mind, body or spirit, especially:

Joan Wood, Maria Strachan, Claire Coombes, Jackie Dare, Pat Rogers, Lilian Hosking, Enid Pearce, Joan Whitford, Margaret Hooper and young Lilly.

We pray for those who have died in the body, that they may be raised in Christ... Bring them to the joy of your heavenly Temple, where worship is perfect and eternal.

We remember those whose anniversaries fall at this time. We especially pray for soul of Rev'd Canon Michael Geach, recently departed this life, who served his entire ordained ministry of 70 years entirely in this Diocese. We pray for those who mourn Michael and for his family, at this sad time.

We pray that we may be worthy in worship in the Temple of the Lord.
