Fourth Sunday of Lent

[Mothering Sunday]

Sunday 10th March 2024

-Sung Eucharist 10am

Rev'd Stewart Turner

Collect:

God of compassion,

whose Son Jesus Christ, the child of Mary, shared the life of a home in Nazareth, and on the cross drew the whole human family to himself: strengthen us in our daily living that in joy and in sorrow we may know the power of your presence to bind together and to heal; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A reading from book of Exodus

Now a man from the house of Levi went and married a Levite woman. The woman conceived and bore a son; and when she saw that he was a fine baby, she hid him for three months. When she could hide him no longer she got a papyrus basket for him, and plastered it with bitumen and pitch; she put the child in it and placed it among the reeds on the bank of the river. His sister stood at a distance, to see what would happen to him.

The daughter of Pharaoh came down to bathe at the river, while her attendants walked beside the river. She saw the basket among the reeds and sent her maid to bring it.

When she opened it, she saw the child. He was crying, and she took pity on him. 'This must be one of the Hebrews' children,' she said.

Then his sister said to Pharaoh's daughter, 'Shall I go and get you a nurse from the Hebrew women to nurse the child for you?' Pharaoh's daughter said to her, 'Yes.' So the girl went and called the child's mother. Pharaoh's daughter said to her, 'Take this child and nurse it for me, and I will give you your wages.'

So the woman took the child and nursed it. When the child grew up, she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter, and she took him as her son. She named him Moses, 'because', she said, 'I drew him out of the water.'

A reading from the second epistle of Paul to the Corinthians

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and the God of all consolation, who consoles us in all our affliction, so that we may be able to console those who are in any affliction with the consolation with which we ourselves are consoled by God.

For just as the sufferings of Christ are abundant for us, so also our consolation is abundant through Christ.

If we are being afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation; if we are being consoled, it is for your consolation, which you experience when you patiently endure the same sufferings that we are also suffering.

Our hope for you is unshaken; for we know that as you share in our sufferings, so also you share in our consolation.

Gospel according to Luke

And the child's father and mother were amazed at what was being said about him.

Then Simeon blessed them and said to his mother Mary, 'This child is destined for the falling and the rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be opposed so that the inner thoughts of many will be revealed—and a sword will pierce your own soul too.'

Post Communion Prayer:

Loving God,

as a mother feeds her children at the breast you feed us in this sacrament with the food and drink of eternal life: help us who have tasted your goodness to grow in grace within the household of faith; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Weekly Prayer Intentions:

Mission and Ministry of this Parish:

For those living and working in Penryn and surrounding villages. For the parish of St. Gluvias and a growth in our congregation.

For the homeless in our parish and throughout the country. For those that rely on the support of the Foodbank.

We pray for those involved in the selection process to appoint a 'House for Duty' priest (HfD) to assist in the Penryn Benefice.

-We pray for those who have the responsibility of leadership and for our ministry team.

-For those trying to discern God's will and our path.

-For those trying to discern their own calling...or that of others.

-For those who may be called to serve in this Benefice.

For the World:

We pray for victims of terrorism the world over; for all affected by atrocities around the world and for persecuted Christians.

We pray for the people of Ukraine and the people of Russia; for their countries and their leaders.

We call upon you to show mercy to the people Israel and Palestine and protect them.

We pray for leaders on the world stage; that they are inspired by the wisdom and courage of Christ.

We continue to pray for all people fleeing violence and oppression. For all exploited by people smugglers and for refugees across the world.

For those affected by natural disasters around the world. Help us to value the environment so that we can all work to reverse climate change and global warming.

In the Diocese cycle of prayer:

MOTHERING SUNDAY

Loving God, Thank you for mums and children and for all the joy of family life. Be with those who are grieving because they have no mother; Be close to those who are struggling because they have no children; Be near to those who are sad because they are far apart from those they love. Let your love be present in every home. And help your church to have eyes to see and ears to hear the needs of all who come. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

4th Sunday of Lent - The Episcopal Church

Prayers for the Fourth Sunday in Lent - Mothering Sunday

Let us pray to God, who loves all people as a mother loves her children.

We give thanks for the example of Mary, mother of Jesus...We pray that our spiritual mother the Church may follow in her humility, trust and love.

Soften with a mother's gentleness all the hardness of human hearts...May the Holy Family of Nazareth bring blessing wherever people live together...Draw all races and nations to be one family in your love.

We pray for all mothers, especially those in our own and our local families...Give them the unfailing love that Mary gave to Jesus, and uphold them in time of anxiety and distress.

Have mercy on mothers who suffer for themselves or for their children, through sickness, misfortune or human cruelty...Give them the strength of your presence which comforted Mary in her sorrow.

We remember in our prayers those suffering in mind, body or spirit, especially:

Joan Wood, Maria Strachan,
Claire Coombes, Jackie Dare,
Pat Rogers, Lilian Hosking,
Enid Pearce, Joan Whitford,
Margaret Hooper and young Lilly.

Because your love is more constant than the love of any human mother, we pray with confidence for the repose of all who have died in the faith of Jesus Christ, Son of Mary and Son of God.

We remember especially
Thomas Gill, Gladys Woodward (11th),
George Kingdon (14th),
Cecil Jewell, Roy McDonald (15th),
Betty Jenkin II (16th),

Seeking to have faith as little children, we offer our prayers through Christ our Lord.
