THE OLD TESTAMENT READING

GENESIS 3.8-15

<sup>8</sup>They heard the sound of the Lord God walking in the garden at the time of the evening breeze, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the Lord God among the trees of the garden.

<sup>9</sup>But the Lord God called to the man, and said to him, 'Where are you?'

<sup>10</sup>He said, 'I heard the sound of you in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself.'

<sup>11</sup>He said, 'Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree of which I commanded you not to eat?'

<sup>12</sup>The man said, 'The woman whom you gave to be with me, she gave me fruit from the tree, and I ate.'

<sup>13</sup>Then the Lord God said to the woman, 'What is this that you have done?' The woman said, 'The serpent tricked me, and I ate.'

<sup>14</sup>The Lord God said to the serpent, 'Because you have done this, cursed are you among all animals and among all wild creatures; upon your belly you shall go, and dust you shall eat all the days of your life.'

<sup>15</sup>I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; he will strike your head, and you will strike his heel.'

THE NEW TESTAMENT READING

GALATIANS 4.1-5

<sup>4</sup>My point is this: heirs, as long as they are minors, are no better than slaves, though they are the owners of all the property;

<sup>2</sup>but they remain under guardians and trustees until the date set by the father.

<sup>3</sup>So with us; while we were minors, we were enslaved to the elemental spirits of the world.

<sup>4</sup>But when the fullness of time had come, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born under the law,

<sup>5</sup>in order to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as children.

Here ends the second reading
