

Taverham Fair thank you to everyone who visited or helped with our Churches Together stall. We had a great day and many good conversations.

The St Ed's organ. A huge thank you to Philip who has been working alone this week. The pipes are nearly all reinstalled and the outer casing will soon be back. The retuning will then begin.

Holy Communion at Mustard Tree Church will hopefully begin in the Autumn. We will be having preparation classes for children to be admitted to Holy Communion which will begin on Sunday 14th September at lunchtime and into the afternoon. If your child would be interested in joining the group, please speak to Rev Paul or Sue Beevor.

Holy Communion is likely to take place at Mustard Tree on the fourth Sundays.

Charitable Giving we will soon be meeting to put together proposals for our Charitable Giving based on last year's income. If you have suggestions of charities or causes, please let Rev Paul know.

Administration of Holy Communion There is a slip of paper available today to hear your (anonymous) thoughts. Please can you hand these to a Churchwarden.

Welcome to St Edmund's Church Taverham

29th June 2025

While everyone was marvelling at all that Jesus did, he said to his disciples, "Listen carefully to what I am about to tell you: The Son of Man is going to be delivered into the hands of men." But they did not understand what this meant. It was hidden from them, so that they did not grasp it, and they were afraid to ask him about it.

Luke 9 : 43 45

Prayers for this week, on the theme of discipleship, from Christians long ago :

Alone with none but thee, my God,
I journey on my way.
What need I fear, when thou art near O
king of night and day?
More safe am I within thy hand
Than if a host did round me stand.
(Columba, c.521 - 597)

Lord, thou hast given us thy Word for a
light to shine upon our path;
grant us so to meditate on that Word,
and to follow its teaching,
that we may find in it the light that shines
more and more until the perfect day;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
(Jerome, c 342 - 420)

Jesus, my feet are dirty. Come even as a slave to me, pour water into your bowl, come and wash my feet. In asking such a thing I know I am overbold, but I dread
what was threatened when you said to me, "If I do not wash your feet I have no fellowship with you." Wash my feet then,
because I long for your companionship.
(Origen, c. 185–254)

Readings this week

1 Kings 19 : 5 – 16, 19 - end
Galatians 5 : 1, 13 - 25
Luke 9 : 43 – 62

Thought for this week

In our Gospel reading today Jesus has a great sense of urgency. Jesus knows it His time to go to Jerusalem. To enter the confrontation and ordeal that will lead to the offer of salvation for all people. He knows His journey to the Cross will change everything in our relationship with God and brings us into a new age
of the Lord's love and welcome.

This is Jesus' mission. To bring forgiveness and a new beginning. Yet in this mission
Jesus calls His disciples to go with Him.
He calls all who will follow, including us.
All who will lay aside distractions and
other demands, however worthy.

One of the biggest privileges we have each day is how to use our time. We are given this precious gift each day. The potential to use our time to bring Jesus'
life to others, to show they are precious
to the Lord, to reveal Jesus' Kingdom in our lives, to pray for the Lord's presence and His hope.

Jesus knows the frustrations and distractions of every day. He came to share our lives with its times of joy as well
as it's times of hardship, and the times of waiting. Jesus calls each of us to fix our eyes on Him. To grow in His love. To live knowing that this now is the time of His Kingdom, the time of His hope. Paul
