Bishop Alan bids farewell in Cathedral service

Monday 19th May

"As I take my leave of you, I ask only this: fix your eyes not on one another - for we let one another down - but on Jesus Christ, our crucified and risen Lord. And let us point others to him, with confidence and joy, for he is the hope of the nations."

Bishop Alan laid down his crozier on 18th May, bringing to a close more than 16 years of service as Bishop of St. Albans. In a Cathedral filled with music and thanksgiving, the Diocese celebrated his ministry and sent him into retirement with joy.
