Third Sunday after Trinity

Sunday 6th July 2025

9am – Benefice Service
at St. Mylor

David Williams, Bishop of Truro

Collect:

Almighty God,

you have broken the tyranny of sin and have sent the Spirit of your Son into our hearts whereby we call you Father: give us grace to dedicate our freedom to your service, that we and all creation may be brought to the glorious liberty of the children of God; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

First Reading: A reading from the Prophet Isaiah Rejoice with Jerusalem, and be glad for her, all you who love her; rejoice with her in joy, all you who mourn over her--that you may nurse and be satisfied from her consoling breast, that you may drink deeply with delight from her glorious bosom.

For thus says the LORD: I will extend prosperity to her like a river and the wealth of the nations like an overflowing stream, and you shall nurse and be carried on her arm and bounced on her knees.

As a mother comforts her child, so I will comfort you; you shall be comforted in Jerusalem. You shall see, and your heart shall rejoice; your bodies shall flourish like the grass, and it shall be known that the power of the LORD is with his servants, and his indignation is against his enemies.

Second Reading: Letter of Paul to the Galatians

My brothers and sisters, if anyone is detected in a transgression, you who have received the Spirit should restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness.
Take care that you yourselves are not tempted. Bear one another's burdens, and in this way you will fulfil the law of Christ. For if those who are nothing think they are something, they deceive themselves.

All must test their own work; then that work, rather than their neighbour's work, will become a cause for pride.
For all must carry their own loads.
Those who are taught the word must share in all good things with their teacher.

Do not be deceived; God is not mocked, for you reap whatever you sow. If you sow to your own flesh, you will reap corruption from the flesh, but if you sow to the Spirit, you will reap eternal life from the Spirit.

So let us not grow weary in doing what is right, for we will reap at harvesttime, if we do not give up.

So then, whenever we have an opportunity, let us work for the good of all and especially for those of the family of faith.

See what large letters I make when I am writing in my own hand! It is those who want to make a good showing in the flesh who try to compel you to be circumcised--only that they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ.

Even the circumcised do not themselves obey the law, but they want you to be circumcised so that they may boast about your flesh.

May I never boast of anything except the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me and I to the world.

For neither circumcision nor uncircumcision is anything, but a new creation is everything!

As for those who will follow this rule-- peace be upon them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God.

Gospel: Luke

After this the Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them on ahead of him in pairs to every town and place where he himself intended to go.

He said to them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest.

Go on your way; I am sending you out like lambs into the midst of wolves.
Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals, and greet no one on the road.

Whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace to this house!' And if a person of peace is there, your peace will rest on that person, but if not, it will return to you.

Remain in the same house, eating and drinking whatever they provide, for the labourer deserves to be paid. Do not move about from house to house.
Whenever you enter a town and its people welcome you, eat what is set before you; cure the sick who are there, and say to them, 'The kingdom of God has come near to you.'

But whenever you enter a town and they do not welcome you, go out into its streets and say, 'Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet, we wipe off in protest against you. Yet know this: the kingdom of God has come near.'

"Whoever listens to you listens to me, and whoever rejects you rejects me, and whoever rejects me rejects the one who sent me."

The seventy-two returned with joy, saying, "Lord, in your name even the demons submit to us!" He said to them, "I watched Satan fall from heaven like a flash of lightning.
Indeed, I have given you authority to tread on snakes and scorpions and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing will hurt you. Nevertheless, do not rejoice at this, that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven."

Post Communion Prayer:

O God, whose beauty is beyond our Imagining and whose power we cannot comprehend: show us your glory as far as we can grasp it, and shield us from knowing more than we can bear until we may look upon you without fear; through Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen

Weekly Prayer Intentions:

Mission and Ministry of this Parish:

For those living and working in Penryn and surrounding villages. For the parish of St. Gluvias and a growth in our congregation.

For the homeless in our parish and throughout the country. For those that rely on the support of the Foodbank.

For the World:

We pray for victims of terrorism the world over; for all affected by atrocities around the world and for persecuted Christians.

We pray for the people of Ukraine and the people of Russia; for their countries and their leaders.

We call upon you to show mercy to the people Israel and Palestine and protect them.

We pray for leaders on the world stage; that they are inspired by the wisdom and courage of Christ.

We continue to pray for all people fleeing violence and oppression. For all exploited by people smugglers and for refugees across the world.

For those affected by natural disasters around the world. Help us to value the environment so that we can all work to reverse climate change and global warming.

In the diocese cycle of prayer: GENERAL SYNOD

Gracious and eternal God we ask for your blessing upon all who gather this week as members of the General Synod. Be especially with those representing our diocese in the Houses of Laity, Clergy, and Bishops. Grant them wisdom and discernment in their conversations and decisions, as they seek your guidance in shaping the future of the Church of England.

Amen

Anglican Communion:

3rd Sunday after Trinity - The Church of Nigeria (Anglican Communion)

Prayers for the Third Sunday after Trinity

Let us pray to the Lord who has appointed us to service him as his disciples.

Keep the Church faithful, to trust only in the Cross of Christ...Fill your people with love for one another and with zeal to spread the Gospel to all people.

Bless those who travel...Keep them safe as they journey and guide them on their way...Guide and protect all missionaries and bless those who support them.

Give us the grace of hospitality, that our homes shall be places of welcome...Give us power to speak of the good news which we have received to those with whom we live and work.

Visit and relieve the homeless and the wanderers who have no place to rest....Be merciful to all who find doors shut against them because society has rejected them...Bless those who try to reach out to them in their need.

We pray for those who suffer in mind, body or spirit, especially...

Joan Wood, Claire Coombes, Jackie Dare, Roderick Dare, Pat Rogers, Lilian Hosking, Joan Whitford, Sharron Simcock, and young Lilly.

We pray for those who have come to the end of their earthly journey... Receive the into their true home, to share the joy of the heavenly feast.

We remember the souls of the faithful departed, especially...

Lambert Gardner, Anne Winnett (6th) William John Phillpotts Pr. (10th), Marjorie Davey (11th).

We pray in the name of Christ to be his faithful labourers. Amen.
