Methodist Minister's Reflection for July

Dear Friends,

I write this on the first day of Wimbledon fortnight – the oldest tennis tournament in the world. I went to Wimbledon once, many years ago. Amongst other things, I remember the strawberries! Remember the time when strawberries were only available during the summer? I still like the ones grown locally – more flavour, fewer 'food miles'.

My dad once announced that the best thing to put on strawberries, rather than cream and / or sugar, is black pepper, freshly ground of course. If you've never tried it, give it a go, especially as part of a summer salad. This year, one supermarket is selling strawberry and cream sandwiches – these are not just sandwiches, if you know what I mean. Sometimes, we need to freshen things up while retaining the essence of what we love.

This is how the gospel might be told to those belonging to Gen Z:

*bruh we messed up
god pulled a "fine, i'll do it myself"
jesus came, lived the vibes, died for our mess,
then hit respawn 3 days later
now we get grace, not groundings
eternal life? bet.
#heDidTheThing #gospelvibes #jesuswon*

Don't worry, I'm not having another midlife crisis!

Enjoy the summer, Howard
