Sunday 20th July 2025 The Fifth Sunday After Trinity

Genesis 18.1-10a, Colossians 1.15-28, Luke 10.38-end

Dear Friends,

We may be a small church. We may be tired. But we are not forgotten. Christ is with us, and Christ is enough.

Let's not underestimate the quiet strength of simply being faithful: of coming to church, of praying when we're unsure, of caring for others even when it feels like no one notices. Paul would look at us today, as he looked at the Colossians, and say: "You're doing better than you think. And Christ is already bearing fruit in you."

Hold on to that hope. Hold on to Him.

You remain in my prayers and I hope you continue to keep safe and well.

Please continue to check on A Church Near You website for updates and news in the Flyfords - <https://www.achurchnearyou.com>

Mothers' Union Celebrates!

There have been a number of celebrations for the Mothers' Union recently. Over the weekend of the 9-10 August, the Mothers' Union will be celebrating their founder, Mary Sumner; in January they celebrated the arrival of their new Worldwide President Kathleen Snow, from Canada; in April six members from the Diocese of Worcester met Kathleen in Coventry; and across the world plans are afoot to celebrate the organisation's 150th anniversary next year with prayer, praise, fundraising and publicity.

Mothers' Union President, Jill Crofton said:

"We are encouraging others to JOIN US, JOIN IN! Our practical projects reach prisons, refuges, hospitals, and families needing short breaks or days out together. Here, our latest, newly started, pilot literacy project in Long Lartin Prison aims to increase confidence among prisoners in keeping in touch with their families during a long jail term. Please pray for Nicki Harris, our MU worker there." If you are interested in joining the Mothers' Union, find more details on the Mothers' Union website.
