Fourth Sunday after Trinity

(Sea Sunday)

Sunday 13th July 2025

10am – Sung Eucharist

Fr Tim Pilkington

Collect:

O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy: increase and multiply upon us your mercy; that with you as our ruler and guide we may so pass through things temporal that we lose not our hold on things eternal; grant this, heavenly Father, for our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Amen

First Reading: A reading from the book of Deuteronomy

and the LORD your God will make you abundantly prosperous in all your undertakings, in the fruit of your body, in the fruit of your livestock, and in the fruit of your soil. For the LORD will again take delight in prospering you, just as he delighted in prospering your ancestors, when you obey the LORD your God by observing his commandments and decrees that are written in this book of the law, because you turn to the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

Surely, this commandment that I am commanding you today is not too hard for you, nor is it too far away.

It is not in heaven, that you should say, "Who will go up to heaven for us, and get it for us so that we may hear it and observe it?"

Neither is it beyond the sea, that you should say, "Who will cross to the other side of the sea for us, and get it for us so that we may hear it and observe it?" →

No, the word is very near to you; it is in your mouth and in your heart for you to observe.

Second Reading: Letter of Paul to the Colossians

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, To the saints and faithful brothers and sisters in Christ in Colossae: Grace to you and peace from God our Father.

In our prayers for you we always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, for we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love that you have for all the saints, because of the hope laid up for you in heaven. You have heard of this hope before in the word of the truth, the gospel that has come to you. Just as it is bearing fruit and growing in the whole world, so it has been bearing fruit among yourselves from the day you heard it and truly comprehended the grace of God.

This you learned from Epaphras, our beloved fellow servant. He is a faithful minister of Christ on our behalf, and he has made known to us your love in the Spirit.

For this reason, since the day we heard it, we have not ceased praying for you and asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of God's will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, so that you may walk worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, as you bear fruit in every good work and as you grow in the knowledge of God.

May you be made strong with all the strength that comes from his glorious power, so that you may have all endurance and patience, joyfully giving thanks to the Father, who has enabled you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light.

He has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

Gospel: Luke

Just then a lawyer stood up to test Jesus. "Teacher," he said, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?"

He said to him, "What is written in the law? What do you read there?"

He answered, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbour as yourself."

And he said to him, "You have given the right answer; do this, and you will live." But wanting to justify himself, he asked Jesus, "And who is my neighbour?"

Jesus replied, "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him, and went away, leaving him half dead.

Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side.

But a Samaritan while traveling came near him; and when he saw him, he was moved with pity. He went to him and bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

The next day he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, 'Take care of him; and when I come back, I will repay you whatever more you spend.'

Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbour to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?" He said, "The one who showed him mercy." Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

Post Communion Prayer:

Eternal God, comfort of the afflicted and healer of the broken, you have fed us at the table of life and hope: teach us the ways of gentleness and peace, that all the world may acknowledge the kingdom of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Weekly Prayer Intentions:

Mission and Ministry of this Parish:

For those living and working in Penryn and surrounding villages. For the parish of St. Gluvias and a growth in our congregation.

For the homeless in our parish and throughout the country. For those that rely on the support of the Foodbank.

For the World:

We pray for victims of terrorism the world over; for all affected by atrocities around the world and for persecuted Christians.

We pray for the people of Ukraine and the people of Russia; for their countries and their leaders.

We call upon you to show mercy to the people Israel and Palestine and protect them.

We pray for leaders on the world stage; that they are inspired by the wisdom and courage of Christ.

We continue to pray for all people fleeing violence and oppression. For all exploited by people smugglers and for refugees across the world.

For those affected by natural disasters around the world. Help us to value the environment so that we can all work to reverse climate change and global warming.

In the diocese cycle of prayer: SEA SUNDAY

Creator God, Thank you for making the oceans and everything in them. We pray for those who work at sea, risking their lives, so we can have all we need. There are more than a million seafarers who keep trade moving - working through all weathers, navigating many storms and challenges. Lord, keep them safe in your loving arms. Amen

Inspiration taken from The Mission To Seafarers.

Anglican Communion:

4th Sunday after Trinity - The Church of North India (United)

Prayers for the Fourth Sunday after Trinity

Let us pray to be made perfect in the love of God and of our neighbours.

May the Church, rejoicing in the redemption won by Christ, show herself worthy of her calling and be abundant in good work...Give to all clergy and lay ministers the grace both to be faithful in duty and compassionate to need.

Give light to this world where pressure of living too often leads to indifference and hardness of heart...
Through the great commandment of love teach all to live as neighbours.

Make us and all in our families ready to serve those who need help...keep us alert and sensitive to signs of distress...Give strength to those in this community who care for the hurt and afflicted.

We pray for those who suffer in mind, body or spirit, especially...
Joan Wood, Claire Coombes, Jackie Dare, Roderick Dare, Pat Rogers, Lilian Hosking, Joan Whitford, Sharron Simcock, and young Lilly.

Have mercy on victims of crime and violence...Mend their brokenness and restore them to the wholeness of life...
Help those who support them in their trouble.

Receive the souls of the faithful into their inheritance of light...Deliver them from all evil and grant them rest in the Kingdom of Heaven.

We also remember the souls of the faithful departed, especially...
Florence Lang (13th), Stuart Carlyon (15th), Elizabeth Wales (17th), Marie Ratcliffe (18th).

We pray for the souls of Joan Keast and Francis Terence (Terry) Burns RIP recently departed this life.

We offer our broken and imperfect prayers to be transformed by the compassion of Christ. Amen.
