

The Grapevine

Sunday 27th July – Sixth Sunday after Trinity

To be a church that lives by faith, is known by love, and is a voice of hope to the world

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Merciful God, you have prepared for those who love you such good things as pass our understanding: pour into our hearts such love toward you that we, loving you in all things and above all things, may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Genesis 18:20-32 - Judgement Pronounced on Sodom

²⁰ Then the LORD said, 'How great is the outcry against Sodom and Gomorrah and how very grave their sin! ²¹ I must go down and see whether they have done altogether according to the outcry that has come to me; and if not, I will know.' ²² So the men turned from there, and went towards Sodom, while Abraham remained standing before the LORD. ²³ Then Abraham came near and said, 'Will you indeed sweep away the righteous with the wicked? ²⁴ Suppose there are fifty righteous within the city; will you then sweep away the place and not forgive it for the fifty righteous who are in it? ²⁵ Far be it from you to do such a thing, to slay the righteous with the wicked, so that the righteous fare as the wicked! Far be that from you! Shall not the Judge of all the earth do what is just?' ²⁶ And the LORD said, 'If I find at Sodom fifty righteous in the city, I will forgive the whole place for their sake.' ²⁷ Abraham answered, 'Let me take it upon myself to speak to the Lord, I who am but dust and ashes. ²⁸ Suppose five of the fifty righteous are lacking? Will you destroy the whole city for lack of five?' And he said, 'I will not destroy it if I find forty-five there.' ²⁹ Again he spoke to him, 'Suppose forty are found there.' He answered, 'For the sake of forty I will not do it.' ³⁰ Then he said, 'Oh do not let the Lord be angry if I speak. Suppose thirty are found there.' He answered, 'I will not do it, if I find thirty there.' ³¹ He said, 'Let me take it upon myself to speak to the Lord. Suppose twenty are found there.' He answered, 'For the sake of twenty I will not destroy it.' ³² Then he said, 'Oh do not let the Lord be angry if I speak just once more. Suppose ten are found there.' He answered, 'For the sake of ten I will not destroy it.'

Let's give Muckleston
a Thumbs Up

St Mary's Church, Muckleston has joined the world of social media. The PCC voted to create a Facebook page not only to communicate with regular attendees but to increase engagement with the wider community. The Facebook page will reflect St Mary's Church culture and personality. Along with updates and photographs, this can allow the church to be explored online before being visited in person by those that might be interested or curious. The page is well maintained with service updates, news about school events and other diary dates. More than just a page about the church, it is already a modern-day bulletin board, a wonderful outreach tool and a community hub.

If you would like to visit the page, just follow the link and please do remember to give it a 'like'  Like .

Colossians 2:6-15, (16-19) - Fullness of Life in Christ

⁶As you therefore have received Christ Jesus the Lord, continue to live your lives in him, ⁷rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving.

⁸See to it that no one takes you captive through philosophy and empty deceit, according to human tradition, according to the elemental spirits of the universe, and not according to Christ. ⁹For in him the whole fullness of deity dwells bodily, ¹⁰and you have come to fullness in him, who is the head of every ruler and authority. ¹¹In him also you were circumcised with a spiritual circumcision, by putting off the body of the flesh in the circumcision of Christ; ¹²when you were buried with him in baptism, you were also raised with him through faith in the power of God, who raised him from the dead. ¹³And when you were dead in trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made you alive together with him, when he forgave us all our trespasses, ¹⁴erasing the record that stood against us with its legal demands. He set this aside, nailing it to the cross. ¹⁵He disarmed the rulers and authorities and made a public example of them, triumphing over them in it.

¹⁶Therefore do not let anyone condemn you in matters of food and drink or of observing festivals, new moons, or sabbaths. ¹⁷These are only a shadow of what is to come, but the substance belongs to Christ. ¹⁸Do not let anyone disqualify you, insisting on self-abasement and worship of angels, dwelling on visions, puffed up without cause by a human way of thinking, ¹⁹and not holding fast to the head, from whom the whole body, nourished and held together by its ligaments and sinews, grows with a growth that is from God.

Luke 11:1-13 - The Lord's Prayer

11 Jesus was praying in a certain place, and after he had finished, one of his disciples said to him, 'Lord, teach us to pray, as John taught his disciples.' ²He said to them, 'When you pray, say: Father, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come. ³Give us each day our daily bread. ⁴And forgive us our sins, for we ourselves forgive everyone indebted to us. And do not bring us to the time of trial.'

⁵And he said to them, 'Suppose one of you has a friend, and you go to him at midnight and say to him, "Friend, lend me three loaves of bread; ⁶for a friend of mine has arrived, and I have nothing to set before him." ⁷And he answers from within, "Do not bother me; the door has already been locked, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot get up and give you anything." ⁸I tell you, even though he will not get up and give him anything because he is his friend, at least because of his persistence he will get up and give him whatever he needs. ⁹'So I say to you, Ask, and it will be given to you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you. ¹⁰For everyone who asks receives, and everyone who searches finds, and for everyone who knocks, the door will be opened. ¹¹Is there anyone among you who, if your child asks for a fish, will give a snake instead of a fish? ¹²Or if the child asks for an egg, will give a scorpion? ¹³If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!'

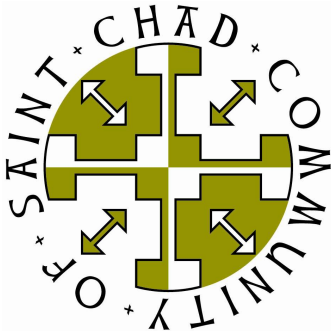

PRAYERS FOR QU'APPELLE

Every week our companion diocese of Qu'Appelle in Saskatchewan, Canada, prays for us in the Lichfield Diocese. Let us join them in prayer:

- Pray for the Rt. Rev. Stephen London, Bishop, and the clergy and people of the Diocese of Edmonton ACC
- The dean, council, and congregations of the East Central Area of the Synod of Alberta and the Territories ELCIC
- for our ecumenical partners in the Lutheran, Anglican, Ukrainian Catholic, Roman Catholic Covenant (LAURC)
- Pray for our companion dioceses of Lichfield and Musinga.

Rt. Rev Stephen London

THE COMMUNITY OF ST CHAD

Drawing inspiration from the life of St Chad, the 7th century missionary bishop of Lichfield, the Community of Saint Chad (CSC) is an expression of modern-day monasticism. It has a geographically dispersed membership united by a common commitment to a spiritual lifestyle shaped by five Rhythms of Grace, and by participation in a Spiritual Companionship Group. The Community of Saint Chad welcomes any Christian who longs to grow in depth of discipleship and who is prepared to journey with others in a quest for a life-changing faith.

CSC Morning and Evening Prayer

During lockdown the Community started holding Evening and Morning Prayer via Zoom. This still continues on Tuesdays at 6pm and Fridays at 9am. All are welcome to join, by contacting the Community.

For more information about The Community of St Chad, please email:

thecommunityofstchad@gmail.com

THE COMMUNITY PRAYER

Be with us Lord as we seek to follow in the footsteps of your servant Chad, whose humility and prayerfulness attracted so many to your kingdom. Let our lives, like his, reflect the light of Christ and the hope of faith. In the name of Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

INTERCESSORY PRAYER

1 Timothy 2:1

I urge you, then, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for all people.

Each Sunday at Ashley, during the morning service, after we have affirmed the Creed, prayers of intercession to the Lord are read by a parishioner. The congregation affirms each intercession with a response "Hear our prayer". At present, only a handful of people compose and read these intercessory prayers. This is in contrast to the 20 plus people who are on rota to read the appointed Bible readings. The clergy team hopes that more people will feel able to lead intercessions at Ashley Church, and they are happy to give guidance to anyone wishing to do this. Some people, including those unable to attend church in person, might wish to volunteer to write the prayers, whilst others may volunteer to read already-composed intercessions.

If you would kindly volunteer, please let Noel Brown know by speaking to him in church or emailing: noelbrown1948@btinternet.com

If the prospect of leading intercessions leaves you are feeling a little daunted, fear not!

We are proposing to hold a workshop on a Saturday morning [yet to be arranged], where you will be guided through the process of preparing prayers of intercession and given an opportunity to write your own prayers. Attending the workshop doesn't automatically mean you will be placed on the rota. It is just an opportunity for us to come together to share hospitality and fellowship, and maybe push the boundaries of our prayer life a little further.

This invitation is open to members from all our churches.

If you are interested in attending the workshop, please contact Rev Sara Humphries either in church or email: rev.sara.humphries@gmail.com

Lichfield Diocese Prayer Diary: Issue 275

We pray for the implementation of our diocesan strategy 'Seeking the Kingdom', within the context of the varied roles and ministries across the Diocese. As 'People of Hope,' we remember those impacted by natural disasters; those in Ukraine suffering grievously and we pray for the people & leaders of Russia; and for a lasting peace for the people of Palestine, Iran, Israel and the wider Middle East.

Sunday 27th July: (Brooke Foss Westcott, Bishop of Durham, Teacher of the Faith, 1901)

Lord, we continue our prayers for West Bromwich Deanery by praying for the church of the Good Shepherd with St John, and thank you that after a period of uncertainty they have a brighter future. We pray that you may continue to guide them into that future.

Monday 28th:

Continuing our West Bromwich prayers, we pray for the church of Holy Trinity in West Bromwich, and that you may bless and guide them into ever stronger relationships with both you and their local community. We thank you for their incumbent Neil Robbie, and his wife Amanda, who both serve on General Synod, and take the chance to pray for all those who represent Lichfield diocese on that body, that you may guide and strengthen them to use their position to seek your will for our church in the future.

Tuesday 29th: (Mary, Martha and Lazarus, Companions of Our Lord)

We pray for Alan Gault as he is commissioned today to serve with the Encounter Project based at All Saints Joiners Square in Stoke. We pray for all those in the project so that like Lazarus it may bring revitalisation, with a Martha-like heart for service, while maintaining Mary's heart to listening to your guidance.

We also pray for today's Eucharistic celebration at the Cathedral recognising the 30th anniversary of the first ordinations of female priests and thank you for all those who have served over the last three decades, especially in this diocese.

Finally, we pray for the Individual Quiet Day taking place today at St Chad's House in Leek, that all those attending may leave refreshed and inspired.

Wednesday 30th:

(William Wilberforce, Social Reformer. Olaudah Equiano and Thomas Clarkson. Anti-Slavery Campaigners, 1833, 1797 and 1846)

Today we pray for Deborah Lovatt as she is commissioned today to serve in Leek Deanery and specifically the churches of St Chad's Bagnall, St Luke's Endon, and St Michael and All Angels Horton. We pray for her as she builds relationships with her new colleagues and community, and especially the two church schools in Endon and Horton. Please may your hand of blessing rest on these people and these places.

Thursday 31st: (Ignatius of Loyola, Founder of the Society of Jesus, 1556)

On the day we remember Ignatius of Loyola, a short Ignatian 'examen' or prayerful self-reflection...

1. Place yourself in God's presence. Give thanks for God's great love for you.
2. Pray for the grace to understand how God is acting in your life.
3. Review your day — recall specific moments and your feelings at the time.
4. Reflect on what you did, said, or thought in those instances. Were you drawing closer to God, or further away?
5. Look toward tomorrow — think of how you might collaborate more effectively with God's plan. Be specific, and conclude with the Lord's Prayer

Friday 1st August: (Joseph of Arimathea)

On St Joseph's day, we pray for the one church in the diocese dedicated to him, in Merry Hill in Wolverhampton. We pray for your hand of blessing to rest on this church and the community it serves. We also lift before you today's 'Bookcase Picture' training session on Dementia Awareness, and for all those who care for people living with dementia.

Saturday 2nd:

We conclude our prayers for West Bromwich by praying for the churches served by the deanery's current Area and Assistant Deans; St Francis' on the Friar Park estate for so long served by Fr Ron Farrell, and Mark Wilson's churches of St James' Hill Top and St Paul's Golds Hill. We thank you for all the valued work taking place in and with the local communities for so many years, and pray you may continue to guide and bless these places.

Sunday Service—9.30am

The Staffordshire Historic Churches Trust was founded in 1953 with the aim of helping churches with the cost of repairs. Ride and Stride is the annual sponsored event in aid of county Historic Churches Trusts all over England. It takes place this year on Saturday September 13th.

Cyclists, walkers, drivers, public transport users are sponsored by family and friends to visit as many churches as they can between 10am and 6pm. It really is a great day out, travelling around our lovely county and meeting friends old & new! In 2024, 93 churches welcomed participants and sponsored cyclists/walkers/drivers raised just over £6,000 - Gift Aid will increase this amount. The money is used to make grants to churches for repairs and essential maintenance. Half the money raised by each participant is returned to their own church and a trophy is awarded each year to a participant: this year it will be presented whoever visits most participating churches.

Bishop Michael adds his support: 'We are blessed in this diocese with an abundance of historic churches, passed into our stewardship through the generosity and faithfulness of past generations. The Historic Churches Trust provides invaluable help in the often costly task of maintaining and safeguarding these buildings. The annual Ride and Stride event is indispensable to its continuing ability to offer this support: it is also an enjoyable and interesting day out.'

See our website for pictures from last year's Ride and Stride day, and please think about taking part this year— as a cyclist, walker, welcomer, sponsor – and enjoy the wonderful occasion!

For more information contact Peter Lerigo (County Organiser) on peterlerigo@gmail.com or speak to your church representative.

Adbaston Community Concert Society Feb 2025

- ACCS may appear to hibernate over the winter, but there are rumblings of activity behind the scenes! Confirming our 2025 performers, hearing from prospective artists, committee meetings, stocking up, writing reports, website attention.....all going on to ensure our next season of 4 fabulous concerts, are well supported and prepared.

The concerts we have programmed are as follows;

Sunday May 4th. Manchester Camerata, wind quintet.

Sunday July 6th Chris Gumbley, Jazz.

Sunday Sept 7th Keyboard Trust, virtuoso pianist.

Sunday Nov 2nd London Handel Players.

Our concerts are held in the beautiful medieval Church of St Michael and all Angels, Adbaston, ST20 0QE where the acoustics are particularly good. We aim to keep our ticket price at £10, but may increase for a particular concert, students £5, children's entry is free. Free parking nearby. Concerts start at 5.30 pm. There is an interval for refreshments and socialising. We ask for a donation towards the wine, drinks and nibbles!

When the concert is a few weeks away, you can contact me to reserve your seats, then pay on the door as you arrive.

ACCS have a Patronage scheme, allowing you to support our mission statement of 'professional, concert level music, available at an affordable price.' We are most grateful to our present patrons; if you are interested with even a modest contribution, annually or a 'one off', please do contact me on 01785 280373 or trafford.pam@gmail.com

Our website is undergoing some changes at present;
www.adbastonccs.org.uk

The committee and I look forward to welcoming you to our concerts this season. PT.
