EYEWITNESS

Sunday 31 August – Nepal Pastor Amrit and his wife plan to expand their pharmacy to care for leprosy patients and others. “Due to laws against evangelism, openly sharing the gospel is risky. But we want to serve people in ways that share God’s love.” Pray for impact.

LOVELY WORDS ABOUT CLIVE’S FUNERAL

I would just like to express my thanks to you all for the lovely funeral that you conducted for Clive yesterday (as much as these occasions can be classed as lovely!) The entire service was such a wonderful expression of faith. I would also like to say how blessed I was at the friendliness of all the church family in Heeley and how welcome we were made to feel as visitors. Thank you, too, to the catering team - a wonderful spread and a lot of hard work.

May God truly bless you all
(friend of Margaret and Clive)

CENTENARY PROJECT

Thank you for all your prayers over the last few months. Give thanks that we have been able to secure funding for the next year towards the post of our Centenary Project Worker, Laura, who works with children and families in our area. Further applications will be made later on in the year to cover any shortfall for the following 2 years. Please continue to pray for this important post and especially for Laura.
