

Weekly notes and information for W/C Sunday 31st August 2025

11th Sunday after Trinity

www.achurchnearyou.com

In all we do, we seek to live out Jesus' command to draw close to the love of God in worship, and to share this by loving our neighbour Collect Prayer and Daily Prayer this week.

God of glory, the end of our searching, help us to lay aside all that prevents us from seeking your kingdom, and to give all that we have to gain the pearl beyond all price, through our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen

PRAYERS AND READINGS AT THE EUCHARIST

Collect

O God, you declare your almighty power most chiefly in showing mercy and pity: mercifully grant to us such a measure of your grace, that we, running the way of your commandments, may receive your gracious promises, and be made partakers of your heavenly treasure; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading: Jeremiah 2.4-13

⁴ Hear the word of the Lord, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel. ⁵ Thus says the Lord: What wrong did your ancestors find in me that they went far from me, and went after worthless things, and became worthless themselves? ⁶ They did not say, 'Where is the Lord who brought us up from the land of Egypt, who led us in the wilderness, in a land of deserts and pits, in a land of drought and deep darkness, in a land that no one passes through, where no one lives?' ⁷ I brought you into a plentiful land to eat its fruits and its good things. But when you entered you defiled my land, and made my heritage an abomination. ⁸ The priests did not say, 'Where is the Lord?' Those who handle the law did not know me; the rulers transgressed against me; the prophets prophesied by Baal, and went after things that do not profit. ⁹ Therefore once more I accuse you, says the Lord, and I accuse your children's children. ¹⁰ Cross to the coasts of Cyprus and look, send to Kedar and examine with care; see if there has ever been such a thing. ¹¹ Has a nation changed its gods, even though they are no gods? But my people have changed their glory for something that does not profit. ¹² Be appalled, O heavens, at this, be shocked, be utterly desolate, says the Lord, ¹³ for my people have committed two evils: they have forsaken me, the fountain of living water, and dug out cisterns for themselves, cracked cisterns that can hold no water.

This is the word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Second Reading: Hebrews 13.1–8, 15–16

¹³ Let mutual love continue. ² Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing that some have entertained angels without knowing it. ³ Remember those who are in prison, as though you were in prison with them; those who are being tortured, as though you yourselves were being tortured. ⁴ Let marriage be held in honour by all, and let the marriage bed be kept undefiled; for God will judge fornicators and adulterers. ⁵ Keep your lives free from the love of money, and be content with what you have; for he has said, 'I will never leave you or forsake you.' ⁶ So we can say with confidence, 'The Lord is my helper; I will not be afraid. What can anyone do to me?' ⁷ Remember your leaders, those who spoke the word of God to you; consider the outcome of their way of life, and imitate their faith. ⁸Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and for ever. ¹⁵Through him, then, let us continually offer a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that confess his name. ¹⁶Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God.

This is the word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading: Luke 14.1, 7–14

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke. All: Glory to you, O Lord.

¹⁴On one occasion when Jesus was going to the house of a leader of the Pharisees to eat a meal on the sabbath, they were watching him closely. ⁷ When he noticed how the guests chose the places of honour, he told them a parable. ⁸‘When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not sit down at the place of honour, in case someone more distinguished than you has been invited by your host; ⁹and the host who invited both of you may come and say to you, “Give this person your place”, and then in disgrace you would start to take the lowest place. ¹⁰But when you are invited, go and sit down at the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he may say to you, “Friend, move up higher”; then you will be honoured in the presence of all who sit at the table with you. ¹¹For all who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.’ ¹² He said also to the one who had invited him, ‘When you give a luncheon or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbours, in case they may invite you in return, and you would be repaid. ¹³But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. ¹⁴And you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you, for you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous.’

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, O Christ.

Post Communion

Lord of all mercy, we your faithful people have celebrated that one true sacrifice which takes away our sins and brings pardon and peace: by our communion keep us firm on the foundation of the gospel and preserve us from all sin; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRAYERS AND READINGS FOR EVENING PRAYER

Psalm 119.81-96

My soul hath longed for thy salvation : and I have a good hope because of thy word.

- ⁸² Mine eyes long sore for thy word : saying, O when wilt thou comfort me?
- ⁸³ For I am become like a bottle in the smoke : yet do I not forget thy statutes.
- ⁸⁴ How many are the days of thy servant : when wilt thou be avenged of them that persecute me?
- ⁸⁵ The proud have digged pits for me : which are not after thy law.
- ⁸⁶ All thy commandments are true : they persecute me falsely; O be thou my help.
- ⁸⁷ They had almost made an end of me upon earth : but I forsook not thy commandments.
- ⁸⁸ O quicken me after thy loving-kindness : and so shall I keep the testimonies of thy mouth.
- ⁸⁹ O Lord, thy word : endureth for ever in heaven.
- ⁹⁰ Thy truth also remaineth from one generation to another : thou hast laid the foundation of the earth, and it abideth.
- ⁹¹ They continue this day according to thine ordinance : for all things serve thee.
- ⁹² If my delight had not been in thy law : I should have perished in my trouble.
- ⁹³ I will never forget thy commandments : for with them thou hast quickened me.
- ⁹⁴ I am thine, O save me : for I have sought thy commandments.
- ⁹⁵ The ungodly laid wait for me to destroy me : but I will consider thy testimonies.
- ⁹⁶ I see that all things come to an end : but thy commandment is exceeding broad.

Old Testament: Isaiah 33.13-22

- ¹³ Hear, you who are far away, what I have done; and you who are near, acknowledge my might. ¹⁴ The sinners in Zion are afraid; trembling has seized the godless: 'Who among us can live with the devouring fire? Who among us can live with everlasting flames?' ¹⁵ Those who walk righteously and speak uprightly, who despise the gain of oppression, who wave away a bribe instead of accepting it, who stop their ears from hearing of bloodshed and shut their eyes from looking on evil,¹⁶ they will live on the heights; their refuge will be the fortresses of rocks; their food will be supplied, their water assured. ¹⁷ Your eyes will see the king in his beauty; they will behold a land that stretches far away. ¹⁸ Your mind will muse on the terror: 'Where is the one who counted? Where is the one who weighed the tribute? Where is the one who counted the towers?' ¹⁹ No longer will you see the insolent people, the people of an obscure speech that you cannot comprehend, stammering in a language that you cannot understand. ²⁰ Look on Zion, the city of our appointed festivals! Your eyes will see Jerusalem, a quiet habitation, an immovable tent, whose stakes will never be pulled up, and none of whose ropes will be broken. ²¹ But there the Lord in majesty will be for us a place of broad rivers and streams, where no galley with oars can go, nor stately ship can pass. ²² For the Lord is our judge, the Lord is our ruler, the Lord is our king; he will save us.

Here ends the first lesson.

New Testament: John 3.22-36

²² After this Jesus and his disciples went into the Judean countryside, and he spent some time there with them and baptized. ²³ John also was baptizing at Aenon near Salim because water was abundant there; and people kept coming and were being baptized—
²⁴ John, of course, had not yet been thrown into prison. ²⁵ Now a discussion about purification arose between John's disciples and a Jew. ²⁶ They came to John and said to him, 'Rabbi, the one who was with you across the Jordan, to whom you testified, here he is baptizing, and all are going to him.' ²⁷ John answered, 'No one can receive anything except what has been given from heaven. ²⁸ You yourselves are my witnesses that I said, "I am not the Messiah, but I have been sent ahead of him." ²⁹ He who has the bride is the bridegroom. The friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices greatly at the bridegroom's voice. For this reason my joy has been fulfilled. ³⁰ He must increase, but I must decrease.' ³¹ The one who comes from above is above all; the one who is of the earth belongs to the earth and speaks about earthly things. The one who comes from heaven is above all. ³² He testifies to what he has seen and heard, yet no one accepts his testimony. ³³ Whoever has accepted his testimony has certified this, that God is true. ³⁴ He whom God has sent speaks the words of God, for he gives the Spirit without measure. ³⁵ The Father loves the Son and has placed all things in his hands. ³⁶ Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life; whoever disobeys the Son will not see life, but must endure God's wrath.

Here ends the second lesson.

Collect

O God, who declarest thy almighty power most chiefly in shewing mercy and pity: Mercifully grant unto us such a measure of thy grace, that we, running the way of thy commandments, may obtain thy gracious promises, and be made partakers of thy heavenly treasure; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

This year's Ride and Stride event will take place on Saturday 13 September 2025. Supported by the National Churches Trust, Ride and Stride is a well-established fundraising occasion for churches to open their doors to cyclists, walkers and horse riders visiting as many churches and chapels as they can in a single day. Thirty-two churches within Louthesk Deanery are taking part this year from Belleau, St John Baptist to Wold Newton All Saints. Walking or riding even a short distance will help raise much needed funds and all the money raised will be used to support churches within the Deanery and throughout Lincolnshire. We are looking for volunteers to help man a reception table in St James on the day and we would love to see as many participants as possible. If you would like to take part or are able to help in any way, please contact Jane Fletcher (cjanefletcher@btinternet.com) or John Craig (jsempolecrg@gmail.com) for more details.
