September Letter

Dear Friends,

It's funny how sometimes a book comes along that seems to exactly capture what people are feeling, but perhaps haven't quite put it into the words. The Germans have a word for it – zeitgeist, which my online dictionary describes as the defining spirit or mood of a particular period of history as shown by the ideas and beliefs of the time.

Why am I telling you all this?

Our diocesan bishop, Mark Tanner, has recently written such a booklet called, appropriately enough, Sometimes, and we had a short piece about it in last month's magazine on page 10. I have decided to write a little more about it because, as I have said, I think it encompasses what many people are thinking.

Well-researched reports, together with experience on the ground, tell us that many people are finding their way into church, especially in the 16 – 24 year age range. They are looking for something, perhaps because it feels like there has to be more to life.

As the title page says this booklet is a little guide for the wanderers, the wonderers and the searching. Perhaps you know someone who might like a copy, perhaps you have a staff room at work where you could leave a copy, perhaps you'd like a copy yourself. We have free copies of this little booklet available in church, or if you live further afield and would like one, just let me know and I will organise that.

I am very grateful to Bishop Mark and the illustrator for permission to reproduce the following images.

God bless,
Heather

A prayer

If you would like to meet Jesus, all you need to do is talk to him. That is all that prayer is. Here is a prayer you can use right now if you want to:

Dear Jesus,

I'm hungry and really want to come to you.

Sorry for all the junk that I sometimes choose to consume, it really isn't very good for me!

Please let me find you, come to you, and eat the fresh bread of your life.

Amen

Sometimes...

...I just want a way through

Sometimes...

...I smell the food cooking before I know I'm hungry and now I want it

Come and join in...

God's whisper to me

God whispered in my ear one day
And said how it would be
I shrugged and turned away and said
“No way, You can't mean me!”

Next time it wasn't a whisper
He spoke quite loud and clear
He had a job for me to do
He said “have faith, don't fear”.

So I took the challenge offered
But how should I begin?
This task was much too big for me
I had to trust in Him.

When the problems overwhelmed me

And I couldn't see my way
I'd put my faith and hope in Him
Fall to my knees and pray.

And my God, He never failed me
Through good days and through bad
He filled me with a courage
I never knew I had.

So if you feel God calling you
Don't doubt and answer “no”
He knows the plans He has for you
Step out in faith...and go!

1 – 7 SEPTEMBER 2025

24-7 Global Week of Prayer

The 24 - 7 Prayer movement, headed up by Peter Greig, are coordinating a Global Week of Prayer from 1st - 7th September 2025.

The event invites communities worldwide to engage in creative hands-on prayer experiences, uniting the Global Church in a shared declaration of God's greatness. 'As we pray together we seek to encounter God's presence and carry his heart for transformation into our towns, cities and nations.'

All Saints Congleton have signed up with the 24 - 7 network to host:

24 hours of prayer
from 12 noon on Friday 5th
September
until 12 noon on Saturday 6th
September
which will take place in St Peter's Church,
Chapel Street, Congleton

All Saints' Church Lawton are participating too. There is an online calendar where people can sign up for a one hour slot. Here is the: <https://signup.24-7prayer.com/signup/d5a291>

You can make a booking as a guest by clicking in the appropriate time slot. You can also book for other people by supplying a name and email address (use your own if they don't have one).

For those who would find it difficult to sign up online please use the List Sheet at the back of the church. We will then record this on the online Calendar

The world needs our prayers, the UK needs our prayer and Congleton needs our prayers, so let us encourage one another to come together to pray.

Praying with Prayers of the Bible - Learning to Pray by Example

Luke 11:1: 'Lord, teach us to pray.'

Luke tells us that the disciples asked Jesus to teach them how to pray after He had just prayed. This is very important. In His preaching Jesus had spoken about prayer; (e.g. Matt. 6:5-8) He had also included prayer in His teaching; e.g. Luke 18:1. But it was neither His preaching or teaching on prayer that inspired this request from His disciples; it was His example in prayer. Also, Jesus had sent His disciples out to preach, yet their request was not, 'Lord, teach us to preach.' They had witnessed the mighty miracles that He performed and saw the astonishment of the crowds (Luke 9:43), but they did not ask Him, 'Lord, teach us to perform miracles.' No, they asked instead, 'Lord, teach us to pray.'

The disciples were beginning to learn that there was a direct link between the prayer life of Jesus and His Spirit-anointed ministry. We need go no further than what we find here in Luke's Gospel to see the consistent prayer life of Jesus. As news of His mighty ministry spread far and wide, 'great multitudes gathered to hear and be healed' (Lk. 5:15). This was 'high noon' in the ministry of our Lord and as the crowds gathered to hear Him, 'He withdrew to the wilderness and prayed' (v.16).

The next chapter tells us that Jesus made a habit of having whole nights of prayer. 'In those days He went out into the hills to pray, and He continued all night' (6:12). A little later the evangelist records that immediately following the feeding of the five thousand, the disciples were with Jesus – and He was praying (9:18). When Luke recounts the Transfiguration of Jesus, he says the Lord took Peter, John and James up the mountain 'to pray' (9:28).

Luke wants his readers to know about the prayer life of Jesus. At every step of His ministry we see Jesus praying. He prayed early in the morning before the day began; He prayed late in the evening after hours of demanding ministry; He prayed in secret; He prayed with His disciples, and He often prayed all night. He prayed in homes; He prayed by the roadside; He prayed on mountains; He prayed in boats; He prayed in the wilderness; He prayed in the synagogue; He prayed in the Garden of Gethsemane; He prayed on the Cross.

Knitivity 2025

We are now closing in on our next Community Art Exhibition Knitivity 2025, on the stitching side of the project my sewing needles are red hot as they are stitching together the many knitted squares that you've all been carefully producing over the past several months.

To date Joseph, a shepherd and two kings or wise men have been completely finished and are waiting in the wings for 18th October when they will be on display, at the moment I'm working on the third king and shortly will look at sorting out the little donkey. Paul is busy making up the forms for Mary, the manger, baby Jesus and the stable.

I hope that as well as knitting the squares you have told your friends and family about our project and they will find time to come and see all the wonderful squares and how they have been transformed into our Knitivity Exhibition.

If you know of places where we can advertise this event please contact any church member to pass on the details, the more publicity we have the more people will come and see our lovely rural church, nestling in the

Cheshire countryside and of course there'll always be a cuppa waiting for them and no doubt cake too!

During our first week that coincides with School October half-term we will have free craft activities available for youngsters coming along as visitors.

Everyone has done a brilliant job making the squares please help us now to publicise the event, I don't think visitors will be disappointed with what they see.

So Knitivity dates for the diary 18th October to November 1st. Once again can I say a big thank you for all the squares that have been sent in, you are all superstars.

With love and blessings Bev x

Fresh ideas for doing church

The elderly priest, speaking to the younger priest, said, "You had a good idea to replace the first four pews with plush bucket theatre seats. It worked like a charm. The front of the church always fills first now."

The young priest nodded, and the old priest continued, "And you told me adding a little more beat to the music would bring young people back to church, so I supported you when you brought in that rock 'n roll gospel choir. Now our services are consistently packed to the balcony."

"Thank you, Father," answered the young priest. "I am pleased that you are open to the new ideas of youth."

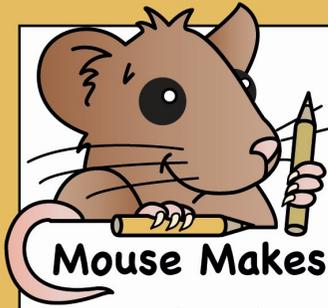

"All of these ideas have been well and good," said the elderly priest, "But I'm afraid you've gone too far with the drive-thru confessional."

"But, Father," protested the young priest, "my confessions and the donations have nearly doubled since I began that!"

"Yes," replied the elderly priest, "and I appreciate that. But the flashing neon sign, 'Toot 'n Tell or Go to Hell' cannot stay on the church roof!"

Recycling & Green Living Tips

10 Ways to inspire reuse in your community

Reduce, reuse, recycle. years, we've heard that environmental mantra. We often follow it. Companies cut down on their packaging, so it costs less to ship, and we recycle our plastic bottles and cans. But what about reuse?

How many of us put something to further use beyond its initial application? Reusing can be much better than recycling. A perfectly good item can have its lifespan extended, even if it has served its purpose in your own home. It can go to someone else, for whom it is good as almost new, and in the process, we save the cost of producing brand-new goods that will also have limited lives. Don't know how to get your old goods into the hands of others? Here are some ideas.

1. Freecycle is easy to use. It is a great website that lets users (both individuals and businesses) post items they no longer need. The first person to respond to a message gets to pick up the item and keep it — for free. It is a good way of getting rid of things you have too many of. I have got rid of lots of plant pots to people who were looking for them.

2. Start a magazine or book trade

Don't let them pile up around the house or recycle them after just one read, trade magazines with your neighbours. Each magazine gets read more than once, and we all save on buying more magazines than we need. (Don't worry, you're not cutting the magazines publishers out of any revenue by doing this. Magazines assume that their issues are going to be passed around, and they set their ad rates based on that higher number of eyeballs, not on subscriptions or newsstand sales). Another option is to leave your unwanted magazines and books in a local Little Free Library — or start one of your own for your neighbourhood. It's as easy as putting up a postbox. Some places have used old phone boxes to start one.

3. Be thrifty

Most towns have charity shops in our town. Whenever you have something you no longer need, be it clothes or recently replaced computer monitor — take it over to one of the charity shops. The charities they serve get money when they sell the items, and someone else in the area gets a great bargain. And if you buy something at the charity shop, share the news with your friends. Or, heck, bring them along when you go shopping. Maybe they'll find a great bargain there, too. Some do not take electrical or electronic goods and others do so check in advance before taking any of those.

4. Get schooled

Most schools are happy for supplies, whether it's office goods or things they can use for craft projects. Check with your local schools. Sometimes it helps when parents pool their efforts to meet a need. So, if there's a newsletter for your kids' school, sign up. If there isn't, start one.

5. Work with local groups

Use your church or other local organisation to start a reuse project. Maybe you can have collection boxes for winter coats at your church or a pot exchange at your garden club. This also works for certain businesses with a social element e.g. cafes with book swap boxes where customers can take or drop off books for free.

6. Hold a Reuse Fair

Have an event with a few tables where people can bring good items and others and take them home to use. It can be clothing or other items.

7. Be a Reuse Model

Peer pressure, when used correctly, can be a powerful tool. Stand up as an example of ways that things can be reused. Bring reusable cloth bags with you when you shop. Leave your old magazines in doctors' surgeries (cut your address off, for your privacy). Start craft projects that reuse unwanted items (like old CDs and DVDs)

8. Return your clothes hangers to M&S

Marks & Spencer's will take back any of their own brand plastic hangers in their stores to reuse or if that is not possible, to recycle. Perhaps other stores will also do so ask when you are purchasing an item that comes with a hanger.

9. Save the moss

Moss absorbs more CO2 than trees, grows without soil and helps cool towns and cities so stop removing it in your gardens and let it grow.

10. Avoid plastic in hair washing

Shampoo bars and conditioner bars were introduced by Lush many years ago but many other brands are now available in most supermarkets, Boots, Bodyshop and others plus on-line. Most are packaged in paper or cardboard and will last for 60-80 washes which replaces 2-3 bottles of regular shampoo which are usually plastic. They are also useful for travel.

Happy Recycling

All Saints' Community Page

It's been a busy time in the churchyard during August and its lovely to welcome new volunteers to the group, here we have Christine who joined us recently helping Isabel and Ella who responded to the volunteer poster on the canal, simply wonderful. We would also like to welcome Brian to the group too, he has been busy tidying the edging of the paths—many thanks for doing this.

The team have been busy strategically placing the logs from fallen trees for insects etc. The newly donated strimmer has been hard at work too. Thank you to all the volunteers, you make such a difference to the churchyard.

Prayer for September

Heavenly Father, September is the month of new starts for so many. New starts can be exciting, but they can also be daunting. We don't always know what to expect and sometimes we feel as if we are on our own in a strange new place, or situation.

Help us to know that, as your people, we are never alone. You promised, through Jesus, to be with us always and You gave us Your Holy Spirit to empower us.

In some ways every day is a new start – a new gift from You. As we unwrap the gift of each new day, this September, encourage us to receive it confidently and expectantly. Help us to know that we can do all things, through Christ Jesus, who strengthens us. We can! In Jesus' name, Amen.
