10am – Sung Eucharist

Rev'd Emma Durose

Collect:

Lord of all power and might, the author and giver of all good things: graft in our hearts the love of your name, increase in us true religion, nourish us with all goodness, and of your great mercy keep us in the same; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

First Reading: A reading from the book of the Ecclesiastes

Vanity of vanities, says the Teacher, vanity of vanities! All is vanity. I, the Teacher, was king over Israel in Jerusalem. I applied my mind to seek and to search out by wisdom all that is done under heaven; it is an unhappy business that God has given to humans to be busy with.

I saw all the deeds that are done under the sun, and see, all is vanity and a chasing after wind. I hated all my toil in which I had toiled under the sun, seeing that I must leave it to my successor, and who knows whether he will be wise or foolish? Yet he will be master of all for which I toiled and used my wisdom under the sun. This also is vanity.

So I turned and gave my heart up to despair concerning all the toil of my labours under the sun, because sometimes one who has toiled with wisdom and knowledge and skill must leave all to be enjoyed by another who did not toil for it. This also is vanity and a great evil.

What do mortals get from all the toil and strain with which they toil under the sun? For all their days are full of pain, and their work is a vexation; even at night their minds do not rest. This also is vanity.

Second Reading: Letter of Paul to the Colossians

So if you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God.

Set your minds on the things that are above, not on the things that are on earth, for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God.

When Christ who is your life is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory. Put to death, therefore, whatever in you is earthly: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and greed (which is idolatry).

On account of these the wrath of God is coming on those who are disobedient. These are the ways you also once followed, when you were living that life.

But now you must get rid of all such things: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and abusive language from your mouth.

Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have stripped off the old self with its practices and have clothed yourselves with the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge according to the image of its creator.

In that renewal there is no longer Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, enslaved and free, but Christ is all and in all!

Gospel: Luke

Someone in the crowd said to him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the family inheritance with me."

But he said to him, "Friend, who set me to be a judge or arbitrator over you?"

And he said to them, "Take care! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed, for one's life does not consist in the abundance of possessions."

Then he told them a parable: "The land of a rich man produced abundantly.

And he thought to himself, 'What should I do, for I have no place to store my crops?'

Then he said, 'I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods.'

And I will say to my soul, 'Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry.'

But God said to him, 'You fool! This very night your life is being demanded of you. And the things you have prepared, whose will they be?'

So it is with those who store up treasures for themselves but are not rich toward God.

Post Communion Prayer:

Lord God, whose Son is the true vine and the source of life, ever giving himself that the world may live: may we so receive within ourselves the power of his death and passion that, in his saving cup, we may share his glory and be made perfect in his love; for he is alive and reigns, now and for ever. Amen

International Global week of Prayer - From 1–7 September
Draw near to God and He will draw near to you. James 4:8 24-7

Prayer is an international, interdenominational movement of prayer, mission and justice; a non-stop prayer meeting that has continued for every minute of this century so far, in over half the countries on Earth.

From 1–7 September there is an opportunity to pray with people across the world for the world, our nation, our town, our community, our family, ourselves, 24 hours a day for 7 days.

Fairwinds Café, Church St, Falmouth

Weekly Prayer Intentions:

Mission and Ministry of this Parish:

For those living and working in Penryn and surrounding villages. For the parish of St. Gluvias and a growth in our congregation.

For the homeless in our parish and throughout the country. For those that rely on the support of the Foodbank.

For the World:

We pray for victims of terrorism the world over; for all affected by atrocities around the world and for persecuted Christians.

We pray for the people of Ukraine and the people of Russia; for their countries and their leaders.

We call upon you to show mercy to the people Israel and Palestine and protect them.

We pray for leaders on the world stage; that they are inspired by the wisdom and courage of Christ.

We continue to pray for all people fleeing violence and oppression. For all exploited by people smugglers and for refugees across the world.

For those affected by natural disasters around the world. Help us to value the environment so that we can all work to reverse climate change and global warming.

In the diocese cycle of prayer: EPISCOPAL COLLEGE

*Loving Lord, We thank you for all who are called to lead within our diocese, especially the members of the Episcopal College. Bishops David & Hugh, Lay Chaplain to the Bishop of Truro Rachael, Archdeacons Kelly and Clive, Dean Simon, Diocesan Secretary Simon, Director of Education Lee, Director of Change and Renewal Ruth. We ask your blessing upon them and their families
- grant them health, strength and encouragement. As they meet this week, may your Holy Spirit continue to guide and inspire them in all they do for the good of your Church and your people. Amen*

Anglican Communion:

7th Sunday after Trinity - The Episcopal Church in the Philippines

Prayers for the 7th Sunday after Trinity

Let us pray to God, who gives us the everlasting treasures of his love.

Keep your Church free from all that would harm her witness...Grant that all Christian people, being risen with Christ, may grow holiness.

Breakthrough the greed and complacency that are damaging the lives of many...Where there is strife for material possession, bring generosity and concern for the need of others.

Keep us, our families and friends, in the way of peace, free from selfish quarrels...Make us more ready to share our good things with those in our community who are in need.

Have mercy on families divided by quarrels over inheritance and ownership...Bring healing where angry words and unjust deed have separated those who should be close in love.

We pray for those who suffer in mind, body or spirit, especially...
Joan Wood, Claire Coombes, Jackie Dare, Roderick Dare,
Pat Rogers, Lilian Hosking,
Joan Whitford, Sharron Simcock, and young Lilly.

We pray for all who have died suddenly and unprepared...Grant them the pardon and peace though the power of the Resurrection.

We remember the souls of the faithful departed, especially...
John Cooper, Frederick Watson (3rd),
Marie Greenway (6th),
Arthur Welburn (7th),
Emily Sheppard, Charles Wasley,
Nancy Williamson (8th), Joan Bradbrooke (9th).

We offer our prayers through Christ, that they may be pure and free from taint of sin.

Amen
