Sunday 7th of September – a day of special events!

You can attend Dahlia Day with tea and scones and fun at 18 Greenbanks, kindly hosted by Diane & David Blundell in aid of church funds for All Saints'; and you can also attend the Meldreth Car Show which is being brought together for its 20th year by John Price at Holy Trinity, Meldreth. You could even attend both and miss out on none of the fun!

Ride and Stride 2025 (13th September) promises to be an inspiring and fun-filled event, inviting participants of all ages to cycle, walk, or even run between local churches and historic landmarks to raise vital funds for the preservation of our beautiful heritage buildings. Whether you're a seasoned cyclist, a leisurely stroller, or simply wish to support the cause, this annual tradition offers a wonderful way to enjoy the countryside, discover hidden architectural gems, and contribute to the ongoing care of our community's treasured places. You can raise money yourselves or sponsor those who have put themselves forward already.
