

PLEASE take note of these!

Open to God - Sunday 24th August 4 pm.
Bring & Share Garden Party with Jill Govier
(contact the Parish Office for details).

Rakes & Cakes at Littleham Churchyard, Saturday 23rd August 10 am—2 pm. It's time to rake the cut grass again and be rewarded with as much delicious homemade cake as you can eat! If you can bring your own rake that would be a help, although Shaun does have a few. Come and join us!

Bank Holiday at the Holy Trinity Coffee Bar... Once again Diana and Bob are opening the Holy Trinity Coffee Bar this coming Bank Holiday Monday from 10am till noon. Everything is free, but donations are invited. There will be lots of delicious things to eat, as well as coffee, tea, hot chocolate etc. We look forward to welcoming you!

Thursday 4th September, 6 pm, Sea Baptism . Everyone is invited to come down to the Beach, near the RNLI station, to celebrate a sea baptism, conducted out there in the English Channel by our ministry team. It will be encouraging for the candidate/s to know they belong to a wonderful family in faith. If you, or anyone you know, would like to join in, please let us know!

National Week of Prayer – September 6th – 14th.

Have you heard the news that God is on the move in our nation at this time in a fresh wave of his Holy Spirit? Now is the time for Christians from across traditions, denominations and communities to join together as one to pray for lives to be transformed by Jesus, and to experience spiritual awakening across our nation. As part of this national call to prayer, we are planning an opportunity for Christians in the Exmouth area to come together as the body of Christ, for an evening of praise and prayer on September 6th at Holy Trinity at 7pm.
Liz Biggs

Thursday 11th September, Enid Hayward's funeral service will take place at Holy Trinity Church at 2 pm followed by a reception in the hall.

Sunday 21st September—Beach Labyrinth 12.30 pm onwards. Join Christians across Exmouth to help dig and dedicate a Labyrinth, and then walk it! Bring your own picnic, chat to the Beach Chaplains and join in with reflective worship as the tide comes in.

Gill and Richard Martin would like to thank everyone for their best wishes and cards as we celebrated 50 years of marriage. It was especially good to see and talk to so many of you celebrating with us on Sunday. We must also thank the cake cutting and wine serving teams.
We have had a truly blessed marriage. Thank you.

This Sunday's Collect and Readings Year C

Introduction and Call to Worship

Christ calls us to new life. In obedience to that call we come to him in worship as equals and are sent out to share his love among all creation.

Our Mission Community Prayer

Heavenly Father,
As we meet in your presence,
hold us together in our Mission Community.
May your church grow as we deepen our love for you and our service to others.
Help us always to remember, though we are many, we are one body, as we all share in you, our one God. Amen

Collect

Let your merciful ears, O Lord, be open to the prayers of your humble servants;
and that they may obtain their petitions make them to ask such things as shall please you;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

First Reading Jeremiah 1:4-10

God offers reassurance to the fledgling prophet, promising to inspire him and stand by him in the task ahead.

Second Reading Hebrews 12:18-end

Christianity is not a faith of fear but one of wondrous glory, graced by a Saviour who shakes our priorities, encouraging us to focus on God's truth.

Gospel Luke 13:10-17

By healing a woman's physical ailments Jesus restores her dignity, underscoring his argument with the authorities: that compassion has priority over rules

Post Communion

God of our pilgrimage,
you have willed that the gate of mercy
should stand open for those who trust in you:
look upon us with your favour that we who follow the path of your will may never wander from the way of life;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PLEASE PRAY FOR

As September is approaching, we pray for those who are thinking about their next steps. Whether it be starting university or college, a new school, or a new job, we pray that they would be reminded that you are with them in this season of change. Lord, we ask that you would fill them with your peace.
