

Please Pray for

...those who have died, including: Neil (wife - Maggie),
John Edwards and Alec Cornick (former churchwarden in North Baddesley)
...those who are unwell, including: Debbie Arthur, Debbie Matthias, Gwyneth Page, Jackie Cunningham, Jeanine Stewart, Mary Dixon, Mavis Eastwood, Michelle, Pam Farquharson, Rae Tugwell, Richard & Sue, and Simon Bell

The gospel (or 'good news') is that God in Christ has reconciled lost human beings to himself. He sent his Son to seek them out, offer them love and forgiveness, and bring them under the rule of God. In this Kingdom they are reconciled to their heavenly Father, and to each other, and are sent on a mission: to be agents of reconciliation in a divided world.

Exodus 32:7-14 Psalm 51:1-11	1 Timothy 1:12-17	Luke 15:1-10
On Sinai, Moses appeals to God's earlier promises of blessing and provision for the Israelites practising idolatry below. His plea is heard and God's holy anger averted	Paul expresses gratitude for Christ's forgiveness of him and his call to serve. His life exemplifies the extent of God's mercy, bringing hope to repentant sinners.	In parallel parables Jesus addresses religious disapproval of his social life. He reveals God's desire to open the doors of the kingdom to everyone.

Charity of the Month September

SSAFA understands the unique demands of service life, whether it's on UK soil or overseas. Support is available for people at any stage in their military career; from the youngest recruit to the oldest veteran – no one's service is ever forgotten. There are more than 4,000 trained SSAFA volunteers who provide personalised, face-to-face support to those in their local area.

Trained welfare advisors and volunteers work with each person to find out exactly what they need. Once they've assessed what is required, they help the individual or family access the support they need. This may just be someone to listen to them, but, more often than not, we access financial assistance from statutory and military benevolent funds or foundations that we work with. In addition, they signpost to charity partners who can give much needed assistance to help people get their lives back on track.
