Re-Vicaring Update

The advert in the Church Times for the vacancy finishes at the end of September. Your parish reps Lynne, Rick and Paul will then receive copies of the applications in early October. They will make recommendations to our trustees CPAS as to who we invite for an interview. Prior to the interviews on Tuesday 21st October we are going to meet together to pray; the morning of Sunday 19th October has been set aside for this, after our service of worship. We will pray and thank God for blessing, encouraging and bringing us through the last 10 months. We will pray for the residents of Bricket Wood, all the different people and organisations we know within our village. We will pray for the interview candidates and interview panel and lastly for ourselves as a congregation.

Harvest

We will be celebrating Harvest Festival on Sunday 5th October, when our friend Mary Windo will be preaching 'The abundance of God's Blessings' at the 10.00 am service. Some of you may remember Mary and her husband John from the past; please stay if you can afterwards for refreshments and the opportunity to chat with her.

This year gifts of food and toiletries will be shared between New Hope and The Food Bank. Please note items should be 'in date' and 'unopened'. Lists of items needed will be on display at the back of church and in the halls entrance.

Monetary gifts will be sent to the Bishops Harvest Appeal, 'Rewrite their Future', please place in a clearly marked envelope, thank you. For further details about this year's appeal please visit:
