10am – Sung Eucharist
Fr Tim Pilkington

Collect:

Let your merciful ears, O Lord, be open to the prayers of your humble servants; and that they may obtain their petitions make them to ask such things as shall please you; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

First Reading: A reading from the prophet Isaiah

If you remove the yoke from among you, the pointing of the finger, the speaking of evil, if you offer your food to the hungry and satisfy the needs of the afflicted, then your light shall rise in the darkness and your gloom be like the noonday.

The LORD will guide you continually and satisfy your needs in parched places and make your bones strong, and you shall be like a watered garden, like a spring of water whose waters never fail.

Your ancient ruins shall be rebuilt; you shall raise up the foundations of many generations; you shall be called the repairer of the breach, the restorer of streets to live in.

If you refrain from trampling the Sabbath, from pursuing your own interests on my holy day; if you call the Sabbath a delight and the holy day of the LORD honourable; if you honour it, not going your own ways, serving your own interests, or pursuing your own affairs; then you shall take delight in the LORD, and I will make you ride upon the heights of the earth; I will feed you with the heritage of your ancestor Jacob, for the mouth of the LORD has spoken.

Second Reading: Letter to the Hebrews

You have not come to something that can be touched, a blazing fire, and darkness, and gloom, and a tempest, and the sound of a trumpet, and a voice whose words made the hearers beg that not another word be spoken to them.

(For they could not endure the order that was given, "If even an animal touches the mountain, it shall be stoned to death." Indeed, so terrifying was the sight that Moses said, "I tremble with fear.")

But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to innumerable angels in festal gathering, and to the assembly of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven, and to God the judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous made perfect, and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel.

See that you do not refuse the one who is speaking, for if they did not escape when they refused the one who warned them on earth, how much less will we escape if we reject the one who warns from heaven!

At that time his voice shook the earth, but now he has promised, "Yet once more I will shake not only the earth but also the heaven."

This phrase, "Yet once more," indicates the removal of what is shaken--that is, created things--so that what cannot be shaken may remain.

Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us show gratitude, by which we may offer to God an acceptable worship with reverence and awe, for indeed our God is a consuming fire.

Gospel: Luke

Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath.

And just then there appeared a woman with a spirit that had crippled her for eighteen years. She was bent over and was quite unable to stand up straight.

When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said, "Woman, you are set free from your ailment."

When he laid his hands on her, immediately she stood up straight and began praising God.

But the leader of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had cured on the Sabbath, kept saying to the crowd, "There are six days on which work ought to be done; come on those days and be cured and not on the Sabbath day."

But the Lord answered him and said, "You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the manger, and lead it away to give it water?"

And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen long years, be set free from this bondage on the Sabbath day?"

When he said this, all his opponents were put to shame, and the entire crowd was rejoicing at all the wonderful things being done by him.

Post Communion Prayer:

God of our pilgrimage, you have willed that the gate of mercy should stand open for those who trust in you: look upon us with your favour that we who follow the path of your will may never wander from the way of life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Weekly Prayer Intentions:

Mission and Ministry of this Parish:

For those living and working in Penryn and surrounding villages. For the parish of St. Gluvias and a growth in our congregation.

For the homeless in our parish and throughout the country. For those that rely on the support of the Foodbank.

For the World:

We pray for victims of terrorism the world over; for all affected by atrocities around the world and for persecuted Christians.

We pray for the people of Ukraine and the people of Russia; for their countries and their leaders.

We call upon you to show mercy to the people Israel and Palestine and protect them.

We pray for leaders on the world stage; that they are inspired by the wisdom and courage of Christ.

We continue to pray for all people fleeing violence and oppression. For all exploited by people smugglers and for refugees across the world.

For those affected by natural disasters around the world. Help us to value the environment so that we can all work to reverse climate change and global warming.

In the diocese cycle of prayer:

FARMERS Heavenly Father, we thank You for the farmers who nurture the land and provide for our needs. We ask you give us eyes to see all those around us, to see the workers in the fields, on the farms, helping to provide us with food, to see those who are lonely and in need of a friend, in need of you. Lord give us ears to hear those who are hurting and don't know what to do with the farm or are just lonely, let us hear your heart for them. Grant them peace in times of uncertainty and renew their spirits as they care for Your creation. Surround them with supportive communities, and may they feel Your presence in their labour. We pray for their families, their health, and their livelihoods. May Your provision overflow in their lives as they continue their faithful stewardship.
Amen.

Prayer by Canon Chris Batt, Bishop of Truro's Officer for Rural Affairs.

Anglican Communion:

10th Sunday after Trinity - Church of the Province of South East Asia

Prayers for the 10th Sunday after Trinity

Let us pray to God for the healing of the Church and the nations of the world.

Bless the Church, called to serve you here as the gathered people of your eternal purpose...Empower us all as ministers of the new covenant, bring hope and comfort to the world.

Be merciful to a world where so many turn away and will not hear your voice...Lift us above the irreverence and contempt for holy things that mars your creation, and lead all people to acknowledge your power.

Rejoicing in your goodness to us, we pray for continuing grace for us, our families and all in our community ... Grant that we may be faithful in our religious duties, but let them never hold us back from works of mercy.

Have mercy on those who are afflicted with crippling and disabling diseases...Give them patience in their suffering and grant them healing.

We pray for those who suffer in mind, body or spirit, especially...
Joan Wood, Claire Coombes, Pat Rogers, Lilian Hosking, Joan Whitford, Sharron Simcock and young Lilly.

We give thanks for those who have come to the heavenly City...Be merciful in their judgement and make them perfect in eternal life.

We remember the souls of the faithful departed, especially...
Marion Green (25th), June Furlonger, Mary Pearce (26th), Grace Williams (27th), Bill Dunstan, Harry Thompson (28th), Mary Rendle, Leslie Osborne (29th), Frank Blamey (30th).

Made free by the love of Christ, we pray in his name. Amen

Nominations are invited to fill a General Synod Casual Vacancy on behalf of the Church of England. If you are interested, please speak to the Churchwardens for further information.
Deadline Noon on Thurs 18 Sept.
