Worshipping God Serving our Community Living Faithfully

A Fond Farewell

On Sunday 5th October, we will be saying goodbye to Revd Jenny, as she is coming to the end of her curacy and is off to pastures new. Characteristically, Revd Jenny is keen that the focus should not be on her but on Jesus ... but we're sure Jesus wouldn't mind sharing a bit of limelight with someone who has served him so faithfully and graciously in this place. If you would like to make a donation towards a leaving gift for Revd Jenny, please speak to Julie or Stuart (Churchwardens) or to Carrie.

Revd Jenny is currently completing her final curacy placement in three churches and a charity in Amsterdam, so we have a couple of weeks to plan the celebrations without her knowing!

Harvest Hotpot

Saturday 11th October

Thank you ...

to everyone who made last week's barbecue such a roaring success, despite the weather. We really lived up to our mission priority to enjoy time together - although breathing deeply proved a little more difficult at times.

We raised some much-needed pennies for the church,
and a great deal of fun was had by all,
especially the... er... children.
