CHOIR AT ST GEORGE'S ARRETON

St John's Choir led the annual Victory over Japan Service anniversary at St George's Arreton in the presence of the Lord Lieutenant and the High Sheriff on the 15th August. The Choir, conducted by Jo Dover, sang the anthem "Brother, sister let me serve you". John Matthews played the organ. This year is the 80th anniversary and it is unlikely that the same service will be held in the future.

RECORDER GROUP

During August, Jo Dover has been leading recorder playing on Wednesday evenings in Church. Descant treble and tenor recorders have been featured. The Group is in 2 parts - Beginners and more advanced Players. John Matthews
