VE Day 80 commemoration service at Crowan Church

8th May, the 80th anniversary of VE Day, saw the band taking part in a service at beautiful St Crewenna's Church in the parish of Crowan near Praze-an-Beeble.

We wanted to play an active role in the national day of remembrance commemorating the sacrifices made by the Second World War generation.

Reverend Rory Clare conducted the evening service, which was attended by members of the regular congregation as well as visitors.

We played some light-hearted WW2 themed music including "Aces High", "Dad's Army", and "Dambusters' March". Then to set a more contemplative mood, we chose John Williams' lovely "Hymn to the Fallen" from "Saving Private Ryan".

Ceremonial beacons were lit across the UK at 9.30pm as we accompanied the hymn "I Vow to Thee My Country".

The congregation certainly did it justice. Royal pageantmaster Bruno Peek CVO chose that particular hymn to be sung by the nation because, as he put it, "I felt there must be something that can bring people together, that they can sing with a simple heart. They're singing for the fallen soldiers but they're singing it together."

The service was concluded with the National Anthem followed by the theme from "The Great Escape", to put a smile on people's faces as they made their way out of church.

A summer of activities!

Susan Godolphin writes...

What a wonderful day it was for our Afternoon Tea on Wednesday August 20th. The sun shone and it stayed dry and calm. Twenty-three of us enjoyed our Afternoon Tea in Camborne Parish Church Hall.

Cake stands were made out of two plates with a glass in between and laden with food, which soon disappeared. There was plenty to eat, many cups of tea and coffee were made and much chatter and laughter as we talked about the old days and how much things had changed in the world.

Never mind, we all left with cheery goodbyes and hope to meet up again at our next Ladies' Luncheon Club in September (see advert further on in these notices and speak to Susan if you're interested).

Philip Gilbert writes...

A big shout out to Ruth, Sharon and Geraldine for all their work in setting up the summer cream tea at Penponds, both morning and afternoon. It wouldn't happen without them!

Additional thanks for the unstinting work of Nik and Heather during the afternoon festivities. Nik seems very at home in our kitchen and all works like clockwork.

And thanks to all others who helped out when needed.

Nearly all our tables and chairs were out so we must have had at least 30 folk join us during the afternoon.

Thanks to Terry, David, Derek and Carys for their considerable work getting the churchyard looking so lovely.

Great to see old friends back with us!

And see overleaf for some pictures from children & families events this summer
