The Rev's Ramblings

What is the most important thing that you have misplaced and had to look for?

A precious ring? A computer memory stick?

A Passport? How long did you spend looking for that item?

There would be no cushion unturned, no drawer unemptied, no shed un-ransacked!

What's the least important thing you misplaced?

Did you even bother looking or did you just buy another one?

The amount of time spent searching for something correlates with its importance to the searcher.

However, God places different importance to things than we do. We may lose a whole load of money...

This would be devastating, but what importance does God place on this? Maybe we've been placing too much importance on certain things and using them for belonging and meaning rather than God.

How would you feel if you lost your Bible?

Even this is material, and God invites us to keep perspective. But what about losing the habit of spending time with God? That's easily missed.

What if we only think to look for the routine long after it has disappeared? It's hard to get back to that relationship with God. It really is worth looking for.

If the amount of time spent looking for something correlates to the importance of the thing to the searcher, I think God has been searching for you since before you were born. Jesus leads the search party, just like the shepherd looking for 1 out of 100 sheep. Would you search as intently for the Shepherd?
