NOTICES

CCWW CARBON FOOTPRINT 2024

In 2024, our total carbon footprint was 25.24 tCO₂. A small reduction compared to 2023, but a good start as there were increased visitors to the church & hall and hours of use in 2024. We have offset our carbon footprint by paying £631 to Climate Stewards who are a Christian charity. The money is used to stop the production of the same amount of CO₂ as we've produced by funding projects such as water filters & solar cook stoves instead of burning fossil fuels. CCWW has a plan to reduce our carbon footprint year-on-year.

Why not measure your carbon footprint and see where you could cut down your CO₂ emissions?

RIDE AND STRIDE

On Saturday 23rd September, Flis and Godfrey Banks will be visiting as many churches as possible, in aid of the Beds and Herts Historic Churches Trust.

If you are minded to sponsor them, Flis will have a form to sign in church this Sunday.

CREATIONTIDE DISPLAY 2025

Thank you to everyone who contributed this year. Enjoy the display as we focus on care for all God's creation in this season of Creationtide as part of our Christian commitment. Please add a prayer footprint to the display.

This week's readings for 8am Service

A reading from the letter of Paul to Philemon.

Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother, to Philemon our dear friend and co-worker, to Apphia our sister, to Archippus our fellow-soldier, and to the church in your house: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. When I remember you in my prayers, I always thank my God because I hear of your love for all the saints and your faith towards the Lord Jesus. I pray that the sharing of your faith may become effective when you perceive all the good that we may do for Christ. I have indeed received much joy and encouragement from your love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you, my brother. For this reason, though I am bold enough in Christ to command you to do your duty, yet I would rather appeal to you on the basis of love – and I, Paul, do this as an old man, and now also as a prisoner of Christ Jesus. I am appealing to you for my child, Onesimus, whose father I have become during my imprisonment. Formerly he was useless to you, but now he is indeed useful both to you and to me. I am sending him, that is, my own heart, back to you. I wanted to keep him with me, so that he might be of service to me in your place during my imprisonment for the gospel; but I preferred to do nothing without your consent, in order that your good deed might be voluntary and not something forced. Perhaps this is the reason he was separated from you for a while, so that you might have him back for ever, no longer as a slave but more than a slave, a beloved brother – especially to me but how much more to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord. So if you consider me your partner, welcome him as you would welcome me. If he has wronged you in any way, or owes you anything, charge that to my account. I, Paul, am writing this with my own hand: I will repay it. I say nothing about your owing me even your own self. Yes, brother, let me have this benefit from you in the Lord! Refresh my heart in Christ. Confident of your obedience, I am writing to you, knowing that you will do even more than I say.

Philemon 1–21

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

Large crowds were travelling with Jesus; and he turned and said to them, 'Whoever comes to me and does not hate father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, yes, and even life itself, cannot be my disciple. Whoever does not carry the cross and follow me cannot be my disciple. For which of you, intending to build a tower, does not first sit down and estimate the cost, to see whether he has enough to complete it? Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it will begin to ridicule him, saying, "This fellow began to build and was not able to finish." Or what king, going out to wage war against another king, will not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to oppose the one who comes against him with twenty thousand? If he cannot, then, while the other is still far away, he sends a delegation and asks for the terms of peace. So therefore, none of you can become my disciple if you do not give up all your possessions.'

SUNDAY 7 SEPTEMBER 2025

TRINITY 12

The Collect

God of constant mercy, who sent your Son to save us: remind us of your goodness, increase your grace within us,
that our thankfulness may grow,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Post Communion

God of all mercy,
in this eucharist you have set aside our sins
and given us your healing:
grant that we who are made whole in Christ
may bring that healing to this broken world,
in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Green / World Prayer

A reading from the Book of Genesis (1:6, 8)

Then God said: Let there be a dome in the middle of the waters, to separate one body of water from the other.

God made the dome, and it separated the water below the dome from the water above the dome. And so it happened. God called the dome "sky."

Amen.
