Word of the month

I know I've already said thank you, but I genuinely really enjoyed Saturday! It was so touching to see everyone joining together and doing their bit and it is an image I hope we keep as we move forward and flourish together.

At this time of year we think about all of the gifts whatever shape or size they may take. They could be physical as in the gift of a home or community, they could be spiritual as in the gift of prayer or a heart for the poor. At the moment one of the gifts we can give to each other and our community is peace, James 3:18 says "Peacemakers who sow in peace reap a harvest of righteousness." Whatever offerings we bring this Harvest God is sure to use them in growing his kingdom, in way we hadn't imagined before.

Prayer for Harvest

Generous God, We thank you for the gifts of the earth— for food grown near and far, for hands that plant, pick, pack, and prepare. In our streets and gardens, in shared meals and foodbanks, may your abundance be known. Bless our neighbours, especially those who hunger in body or spirit. Let justice take root, and kindness be the harvest we share. Through Christ, the Bread of Life. Amen.
