Tue 7th October Poetry Corner: Peace and Joy

Poetry Corner returns this month with a gathering focused around the theme of Peace and Joy. Please do join us as we share and reflect on our peaceful and joyful poems!

Please note the altered venue this quarter:
11 Kempston Road, 2pm

Sat 25th October Concert: Parnham Voices

The Beaminster-based Parnham Voices chamber choir, led by director Kris Emmett, presents a program titled "A Splash of Colour: A Palette of Choral Music". Tickets £10 (inc. drink of choice), under 16s free. Book online or contact Jeff Thomas on 07710 096174.

All Saints Church, 7pm

Sat 18th October IT Doctor

Is your iPad misbehaving? Does your mobile phone sometimes have a mind of its own? Bring it along to this month's coffee morning at All Saints, and we'll do our level best to get to the bottom of it!

All Saints Church, 10am

Sun 2nd November Service of All Souls

Join us for a special service in which we remember those who have been lost to us over the past year. Our observance of All Souls includes hymns, readings and prayers for the souls of the departed, whose names will be read aloud.

All Saints Church, 4pm

Purchase tickets and see upcoming events on our website: www.parishofwykeregis.org.uk

Fellowship Spotlight: Craft Group

Our craft group, which meets every two weeks, is an opportunity for us to spend time making things in the company of friends. Whether your current project is knitting, crochet, embroidery, or even darning your socks, bring it along and enjoy a good chat while you work. Or just turn up for a cup of tea, that's fine too!

All Saints Church, Fortnightly (Thurs), 10am

People are saying...

"Some craft groups can feel 'cliquey', but yours is so friendly and welcoming. Everyone is made to feel right at home..."
