Foodbank

We're asking you to consider supporting Foodbank by leaving your donations of food in our churches. These will go to those in our communities who are facing hunger. Together we can make sure no one locally goes hungry in the cold months to come.

Drop In and Chat

Pop along to M&S Kingsley Village at 10:00am on Monday 27th October for a chat and a coffee with Helen.

Rosemary Service of Remembrance

The Benefice of Lann Pydar invites you to a Rosemary Service on Tuesday 28th October at 7.00pm at St Columb Church. All are welcome to come to this special service.

"There's rosemary; that's for remembrance. Pray, love, remember."

We pray that this service will help you in thanking God for your loved ones, and for those whom life has been difficult, bring comfort in your grief. Sprigs of rosemary will be given as remembrances of those loved ones who are missed.

St Ervan Church Celebration

Everyone is welcome to come to St Ervan Church for a celebration, opening and blessing for its reopening on Saturday 1st November at 2.00pm, followed by a cream tea in the village hall.

Julian Meeting

This will be held on Tuesday 4th November at 7:00pm at the Rectory. Come and meet for meditation, contemplative prayer and silence with God.

Messy Church

Our next Messy Church will be held on Saturday 8th November at 2:00pm at St Columb Church. Messy Church is a way of being church for children, their families and everyone! It's based on creativity, hospitality and celebration! If you've not been yet just pop along and see what we do! It's such great fun!

Just Be

Thursday 13th November at 2:00pm in the Vyvyan Room at the Columba Centre. Come along for tea, coffee and cake, bring a craft if you would like to, and just be.

tearfund Big Quiz Night

Come and answer some questions while raising funds for tearfund on Thursday 13th November at 7:30pm at St Mawgan Church. Teams of up to 6. £5 per person, to include quiz entry and a raffle ticket. Bring your own snacks and drinks.

Wreath making

Come and make a wreath from 6pm on Friday 21st November at St Mawgan Church. There will be demonstrations and workshops, with lots of materials provided (or bring your own). Refreshments available and donations towards costs appreciated. We would welcome donations of any red or green plastic bags for this – please leave at the back of St Mawgan Church.

Safeguarding

The Benefice of Lann Pydar takes the safeguarding of those who attend and visit our churches seriously. If you have any concerns or would like to talk to someone, please see our posters in all our churches for contact details, or contact Helen, the Rector, or Jackie Oglethorpe (07811 958851, jackie.oglethorpe@gmail.com), the Benefice Safeguarding Officer.

Next week's Readings

Daniel 7:1-3,15-18, Psalm 149,
Ephesians 1:11-end and Luke 6:20-31

Old Testament: Jeremiah 14:7-10,19-22

Although our iniquities testify against us,
act, O LORD, for your name's sake;
our apostasies indeed are many,
and we have sinned against you.
O hope of Israel, its saviour in time of trouble,
why should you be like a stranger in the land,
like a traveller turning aside for the night?
Why should you be like someone confused,
like a mighty warrior who cannot give help?
Yet you, O LORD, are in the midst of us,
and we are called by your name;
do not forsake us!

Thus says the LORD concerning this people:
Truly they have loved to wander,
they have not restrained their feet;
therefore the LORD does not accept them,
now he will remember their iniquity
and punish their sins.

Have you completely rejected Judah?

Does your heart loathe Zion?
Why have you struck us down
so that there is no healing for us?
We look for peace, but find no good;
for a time of healing, but there is terror instead.
We acknowledge our wickedness, O LORD,
the iniquity of our ancestors, for we have sinned against you.
Do not spurn us, for your name's sake;
do not dishonour your glorious throne;
remember and do not break your covenant with us.
Can any idols of the nations bring rain?
Or can the heavens give showers?
Is it not you, O LORD our God?
We set our hope on you, for it is you who do all this.

Psalm: Psalm 84:1-7

How lovely is your dwelling place, O Lord of hosts!
My soul has a desire and longing to enter the courts of the Lord; my heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God.

The sparrow has found her a house
and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young:
at your altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God.

Blessed are they who dwell in your house:
they will always be praising you.

Blessed are those whose strength is in you,
in whose heart are the highways to Zion,
Who going through the barren valley find there a spring
and the early rains will clothe it with blessing.

They will go from strength to strength and appear before God in Zion.

O Lord God of hosts, hear my prayer;
listen, O God of Jacob.

New Testament Reading: 2 Timothy 4:6-8,16-18

As for me, I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

At my first defence no one came to my support, but all deserted me. May it not be counted against them! But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me

the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from every evil attack and save me for his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory for ever and ever.
Amen.

Gospel Reading: Luke 18:9-14

Jesus also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and regarded others with contempt: 'Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax-collector. The Pharisee, standing by himself, was praying thus, "God, I thank you that I am not like other people: thieves, rogues, adulterers, or even like this tax-collector. I fast twice a week; I give a tenth of all my income." But the tax-collector, standing far off, would not even look up to heaven, but was beating his breast and saying, "God, be merciful to me, a sinner!" I tell you, this man went down to his home justified rather than the other; for all who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted.'

Collect

Merciful God,
teach us to be faithful in change and uncertainty,
that trusting in your word and obeying your will
we may enter the unfailing joy of Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen

Prayer Response

God of our making: have mercy on us.
and at the end...

Merciful Father, accept these prayers, for the sake of your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen

Post Communion Prayer

God of all grace,
your Son Jesus Christ fed the hungry
with the bread of his life
and the word of his kingdom:
renew your people with your heavenly grace,
and in all our weakness
sustain us by your true and living bread;
who is alive and reigns, now and for ever. Amen
