SYLVIA DAY

Sylvia Day died recently just short of her 75th birthday. She ran Search, the senior youth group (ages 14-18) with her husband Dave, for about 10 years in the 1990s. Sylvia sang as a Soprano in the Choir for 25 years and her 3 children. Anne-Marie (Jig), Rupert and Charlotte were also in the Choir. In later years, Sylvia would be seen at the various Church Fairs with a stall jammed pack with jams, chutneys and pickled onions. She was skilled at making Christmas cakes as well. Sylvia was a nurse by profession. Our sympathy is with Dave and her family at this time of bereavement.

JAZZ FESTIVAL

Jo Dover and a small band of volunteers spent the entire Jazz Festival weekend selling Jazz CDs and books, formerly the property of the mother of the Rev. Dylan Turner, at the different events. A proportion of the proceeds amounting to £80 was raised for 2020Vision.

APPLES

There are still some apples picked from the tree in the Churchyard which are going free. The tree did not exist when I joined St John's in 1964. It has been self-seeded and this year has produced a prolific crop. The apples are eating apples but may be cooked.
